The boys club of the Central Church meets this evening. Every member is requested to be present.

Mr Joseph Paimer is resting easily this afternoon, and shows great im-provement over his condition for the past few days since his accident.

Frank Alexander, who has been in the city the past few days visiting his father, H L Alexander, expects to return this evening to Portland.

Work is still progressing in the laying of the cement sidewalks ordered by the council, and the town will soon assume the air of a city. Nothing shows a town off to better advantage than good and attractive sidewalks

The La Grande Marble works have placed an order for another car load of monuments. Mr Davis has increased the business during the past two years to the extent that he buys nearly altogether in oar lots. This makes no small saving in freight.

The faneral of Stella, the nine year old daughter of Mr and Mrs Jeff Bull. took place this afternoon at two o'clock at the family home. The little one had had a severe attack of diphtheria some weeks ago, but though she re-covered from the desease proper, she was not able to withstand the attack of posumonia that followed. Rev J W Oliver conducted the faneral services. Henry and Carr funeral directors.

Mr. Abbott, representing F F Hara-don & Sons, wholesale candy makers, was in the city this week looking after the business of the firm in this city. air, Abbott is certainly a rustier, and if hard work and gentlemenly conduct can secure business, Mr. Abbott should surely land plenty of business. During his stay in this city he has been able to make many friends in the trade, and each time he reappears up on the scene he is able to name new firms as his customers.
