LA GRANDE SCHOOL OF MUSIC

PROF. DAY, Principle.
MRS. DAY, Assistant

This is one of the best musical institutions in the state. During the year 1904 there were nearly four thousand lessons given. The people in this city and valley are beginning to discover the great advantage of this school. The system used is the latest and most practical, and includes all the latest discoveries in the art of teaching music. The school is divided into two departments; No. 1 is for beginners, from 5 years up, and taking in the 1st to 3rd grades. In this department pupils come one hour every day. In No. 2 the grades are from 3 to 15. Here they graduate. Pupils take one or two lessons a week as they desire. No scholars will be permitted to remain in this school who do not study.

Mr Henry Rinehart, who has been visiting at Walls Walls since last Thursday, arrived in the city this morning and left on the Elgin branch for his home at Summerville.

Fred B Carrey, leaves in the morning on a business trip to Omaha, expecting to be absent about one week.

Contractor J L Mars commences work in the morning on I Harris' brick packing house in the rear of his market on N Fir street.

This morning the Rev Eads suffered a sinking spell, and for a time it was thought that the old gentleman was in a serious condition, but this afternoon Dr Willard Smith is able to state that he believes that he will rally and soon be out upon the street again.

"Talk about quick work for a want ad", said Captain Rogers this afternoon as he stepped into the Observer office to count the people. "I guess the Observer want ads progress about as rapidly as any of them go. That purse containing sixty five dollars which Wm. D Moore advertised for Monday evening was returned to him within twenty minutes after the paper was out. That is certainly going some. You see it was this way I found the purse and felt sure that a man who was able to amass such a fortune was fully alive to the value of proper advertising, and therefore I just waited for the Observer, and when it came there was his want ad. It was a paying venture for both of us. He got his purse back and I got two dollars and fifty cents for watching the want column. You can't make us believe that advertising does not pay."

St. Vitus' Dance

Chorea, or St. Vitus' dance, is one of the troubles that overtake nervous, excitable children and cause parents much peace of mind needlessly. I say needlessly, since Osteopathy cures this disease most successfully. Often tense spinal tissues bring about chorea, with no other disturbance apparent.

Herbine

Will overcome indigestion and dyspepsia; regulate the bowels and cure liver and kidney complaints. It is the best blood purifier and invigorator in the world. It is purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, and should you be a sufferer from disease, you will use it if you are wise.

R N Andrews, Editor and Mgr. Cocon and Rockledge News, Cocon, Fla., writes: "I have used your Herbine in my family, and find it a most excellent medicine. Its effects upon myself have been a marked benefit. I recommend it unhesitatingly." 50c Sold by Newlin Drug Co.
