Chas Halgerth of Elgin came in on the train last evening.
Press Lewis leaves in the morning on a business trip to Walla walla county.
J W Samms one of the early pioneers of this county is in the city today from his home on Big creek.
The work on Mrs Zuber's new house is being rushed with quite a force of men.
Dr Geo O'Conner will finish seeding 290 acres of his land adjoining the city, into alfalfa this week.
J W Kimbrell a former resident of this county but is now surveyor of Umatilla county is a La Grande visitor today.
Yesterday afternoon, while Willie Hamilton was jumping, he slipped and fell, severely spraining his wrist.
The Ladies Aid Society of the Presbyterian Church will meet at the home of Mr J K Wright on Wednesday afternoon at half past two.
N E Beaumont, who owns a farm on Starkey prairie where he lived until five years ago when he moved to Milton, is in the city. He states the recent frost, aside from the late peach crop, did very little damage in his vicinity.
The La Grande and Pendleton base ball teams will cross bats on the La Grande diamond next Sunday afternoon. The game will surely be a good one as both teams are bent upon becoming the victors. The game will be a clean one and the fans are assured that it will be a ball game and not a chewing match.

Through La Grande
The two automobile transcontinental racers who started recently from New York City have arrived at Cleveland, Ohio, on the 12th. They will pass through this city, having already sent to G E Fowler to provide them with certain lubricating oils. They expect to make the trip to Portland within 42 days.

Notice
My attention having been called to the fact that my name appears upon the Chronicle Lewis and Clark contest and also upon the list of those receiving votes for the Mayville cigar contest I wish to state that I do not wish to enter either contest, and respectfully ask that no more votes be cast for me.
Mary A Warnick.

Mrs. Dr. F E Moore left this morning for a short visit to Elgin.
Mr. M L Causey, the real estate man, left this morning for a visit to his ranch and fruit farm at Imbler.
Carl Roe, former editor of the Baker City Herald, will remove to Walla Walla, having decided to locate in that city permanently.
J M Chapman of Perry, the Grande Lumber Co's blacksmith spent several hours in the city last night. Mr Chapman owns considerable property in this city.
Miss L E Lorenz, who is now in charge of the branch office of the Boise Statesman at Baker City, spent Sunday and yesterday in the city among her friends. She left last evening for Baker to resume her duties.
Yesterday one of J B Stoddard's fine driving horses in some manner got out of the stable and upon the rail road track, near the Stoddard planing mill, and was run over and killed by the cars. The animal was valued at about one hundred and fifty dollars.
Saturday night the guards chosen from Company L, O N G; to do duty at the Lewis and Clark fair, left this city for Portland. They were Sgt, Thomas Williamson, artificer Elmer Salig, Oscar Hedrick, Allen J Webb and John N Smith, of this city, and corporal A Lee Morelock, of Elgin.
M L Causey, returned last night from Pendleton where he attended the first days session of Good Roads meeting. There was a splendid attendance. Senator Fulton wrote a paper but could not attend, and Governor Chamberlin arrived last night and will address the meeting today. Mr Causey states that Pendleton people are adept entertainers and there was not a dull moment during the day.
P A McDonald, of Boise City, was in town yesterday talking with the property owners regarding cement sidewalks. Mr. McDonald, it will be remembered, had the contract for the brick and stone work on the high school building and also the Masonic building. Mr. McDonald left yesterday evening for Boise, but will return if he can secure contracts which will amount to one thousand feet.

The La Grande High School pupils are now preparing a four act drama to be presented to the public Thursday the 25th. The drama is a good one and the boys and girls are well up in their lines and will undoubtedly give a performance worthy of the patronage of the citizens of La Grande.

An exchange tells of a retired farmer living in the city who recently promised to contribute $2 toward the preacher's salary, as soon as he could sell a calf but failed to keep his word. He went to church a few nights ago and the choir sang that beautiful song "The calf has never yet been sold". He went home boiling over with rage and told his wife the choir had insulted him by singing "The calf has never yet been sold".
