PACIFIC COAST LEAGUE PORTLAND WINS A GAME

San Francisco May 19—Portland defeated San Francisco in a free hitting game today. Portland landed on Whalen for 12 hits and in the second inning, with three men on bases, Essick lined out a two bagger which cleared the bases. McCreddie was at the bat four times and made four hits. Score:

Portland	5	12	1
San Francisco	3	8	1

Batteries—Essick and McLean; Whalen and Wilson. Umpire—Perrin.

SEATTLE DEFEATED

Seattle May 19—Oakland won from the home team here this afternoon. Moskman, who was in the box for the visitors, pitched a beautiful game, but was given ragged support at times. Lohman, who was behind the bat for Oakland, was responsible for the only two runs made by Seattle. He allowed a ball to pass him while two men were on bases, and both scored through his slow handling of the ball. Score:

Seattle	2	7	3
Oakland	7	14	3

Batteries—C. Hall and Dushwood; Moskman, Lohman and Byrne. Umpire—Klopf.

PAIN IN THE LEFT KNEE

Women often suffer from pains called "sciatic" which are really reflex from the uterus. In such cases the pelvic trouble must be corrected to cure the pain. Osteopathy is successful in those cases also. The pain felt by many women at the inside of the left knee is almost certainly a reflected pain and indicates uterine disorder, not necessarily serious, but certainly needing attention.

Osteopathic physicians find that variations from the normal position of the lower segments of the spinal column with the attendant contractures of ligament and muscle that such a lesion entails, are very productive of sciatica and that corrective treatment in the back will cure the malady. Thus you will see that anatomical life causing sciatica may be located anywhere between the middle of the back and the knee. It is the part of the Osteopath to find the disturbance and correct it, if restoration is possible, no matter where it is.
