LA GRANDE SCHOOL OF MUSIC
PROF. DAY, Principle.
MRS. DAY, Assistant

This is one of the best musical institutions in the state. During the year 1904 there were nearly four thousand lessons given. The people in this city and valley are beginning to discover the great advantage of this school. The system used is the latest and most practical, and includes all the latest discoveries in the art of teaching music. The school is divided into two departments; No. 1 is for beginners, from 5 years up, and taking in the 1st to 3rd grades. In this department pupils come one hour every day. In No. 2 the grades are from 3 to 15. Here they graduate. Pupils take one or two lessons a week as they desire. No scholars will be permitted to remain in this school who do not study.

Remarkable Painting
At the urgent request of The Woman's Home Companion, Mr Paul de Longpre, who is the greatest painter of flowers in the world, consented to make a painting of what he considered "The Three Most Beautiful Roses", and the painting is without doubt one of the masterpieces of this great artist. This magnificent picture is reproduced in all its original grandeur on the cover of the Woman's Home Companion for June. Although this cover is an accurate reproduction of a painting worth hundreds of dollars, yet the June number which has this exquisite cover may be obtained at any first class newsstand or direct from the publishers for the trivial sum of only ten cents
Mr Paul de Longpre is justly styled the "King of Flower Painters." He not only paints roses, but every flower that grows and is the highest authority on flowers. His paintings are found in the most select homes. Some have sold for as much as seven thousand five hundred dollars ($7,500.00).
Artists, art critics and competent judges all agree that the covers of the Woman's Home Companion far excel those of any other magazine.
The Woman's Home Companion is a magazine which in beauty and excellence, art, stories, illustrations and fashions etc, excels all other home and family magazines. The Woman's Home Companion is published by The Crowell Publishing Company, New York City, also Chicago Ill., at one dollar a year, and is the favorite magazine in nearly half a million homes where it is read each and every issue by three million people.

NOTED WORKERS OF THE W C T U
The National Conference of the W C T U will meet in La Grande on May 27th and 28th, as has been stated in former issues of this paper, and at that time the people of La Grande will have the opportunity of meeting and hearing some of the most noted women speakers and lecturers in the country, and women who have gained world wide renown by their energetic work in the temperance field. Mrs Lillian M N Stevens, national president, will be in our city at the time Mrs Stevens who has been the chosen successor of Frances Willard for the past seven years, has remarkable strength of character, blended with sweetness and pliability. It was not an easy task to fulfill—that of taking the place of that matchless leader—but Mrs Stevens has proved herself to be worthy the great honor; she has displayed heroic devotion to the cause, her quick brain and warm heart ever busy, planning and working for the best interests of the organization.
Oregon's state president, Mrs Addison, will also be present at the conference. Mrs Addison has been untiring in her efforts to make the trip through Oregon a success, and will personally make the tour with the visitors.
Mrs Mattie Graves, national organizer, is having great success in her lecture tour in eastern Oregon. She reports full houses and encouraging enthusiasm. Mrs Graves will attend the national conference in La Grande.

Katzenjammer Picnic
Home talent productions in an opera house always seem to be more popular than the plays produced even by the best road shows, from the fact that they have a local flavor, and that the actors are generally well known to the audience. With this fact in mind it is safe to predict a very pleasant evening for the public when the Katzenjammer Picnic will be produced under the auspices of the Commercial Club. The casts is composed of names familiar to all and although not ready for publication, there can be no doubt of its excellence. The action of the play is such that it will be possible to introduce many clever songs and specialties and this opportunity will be embraced to its fullest extent. The musical part of the evening's entertainment will be a special feature. There will be two hours of fun. Come and laugh.
