Mr. John Tharp, of Nebraska, was in the city a short time today enroute to Portland.

Mr. Jno B Benson, manager of the Columbia Produce Company of Pendleton, who has been in the city on business, returned home last evening.

Messrs J W Craghead and R Stark, who have been on an extended trip into Wallowa county, returned to La Grande yesterday afternoon. They will return to Wallowa to complete their work in that county.

Mr. D H Steward, who has been troubled with a cold and sore throat for several days, left this morning for a short visit to Hot Lake, in order to try the effect of the waters at that place.

Assessor Strain has now completed the enumeration in all parts of town, and this afternoon stated to the Pendleton East Oregonian that the census so far shows approximately 5700 people but that this number will be increased somewhat by the enumeration of people who have been missed on the first count, and that the total may reach 6000.

A HUNGRY MAN

Is never good natured, but a man who has dined well always shows his most genial side. All experienced wives know this, and many wise women in this city have learned something else.

IF THEY WANT

To strike "hubby" for a particularly large slice of his bank account, they arrange to have him dine at our restaurant. They know the better the dinner the easier he will grant their request. And they also know the best dinner is to be had right here.

Through the courtesy of J W Scriber, cashier, we were shown a sn all map of interest at the fair, and a complete bureau of information gotten out by the Merchants National Bank of Portland. Their bank is centrally located on Washington street and the Farmers and Traders National Bank will give you a letter of introduction, that you will have none of the annoyances of cashing drafts when visiting Portland this summer if you will call on them and buy a draft before going which is much safer than carrying the money.

Died

A telephone message was received this afternoon conveying the sad intelligence of the death of Mrs. Annie Baker, wife of Attorney J F Baker, who has been sick for the past five weeks at the home of her son, Joseph, near Wallowa.

The body will be brought to this city tomorrow, and at this time the funeral arrangements have not been completed. Mrs. Baker is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stephenson, well known pioneers of this city.

Head Crushed

Yesterday morning the body of Lee Irvin was discovered near Summerville. The conditions surrounding the body were such as to clearly show that the deceased had attempted to couple his wagons together and the two wagons, coming together unexpectedly, caught his head, completely crushing it. The deceased was about twenty five years of age. He was hauling lumber from the Summerville Lumber Co., and at the place where the accident occurred there is a hill where teams drawing two wagons drop one wagon and take them up the hill one at a time. The deceased had taken both his wagons up the hill and was coupling them together again when the team pulling the trail wagon pulled too far ahead and the projecting lumber from the two loads caught and crushed his head. Coroner J C Henry was notified this morning, but upon learning the details of the accident decided an inquest unnecessary. The funeral will be held tomorrow at two o'clock.

Killed a Bear

Mr. E Fisher, who for nearly forty years has resided on his farm near Summerville, was a La Grande visitor today. Mr. Fisher came up to take home his daughter, Miss Ettie, who has been attending the La Grande High school. Mr. Fisher reports that his eighteen year old son, George, while hunting a few days ago on the mountains back of Summerville, stirred up a brown bear, and succeeded in placing a bullet squarely in the high forehead. As a result a handsome bear skin rug will soon adorn the Fisher home. The young man was all alone at the time of discovering bruin, but this fact did not deter him from engaging the big fellow's attention, though for a time things looked as if he had started something which would be hard to stop, but he remained in the game until he was able to "bring meat to camp." The dog, which was an active party to the disturbance, was considerably mauled up, but was not permanently injured.
