ATTEMPT IS MADE TO WRECK BRIDGE

By Scripps News Association
New York May 27—A desperate but unsuccessful attempt was made at one thirty this morning to blow up the new Pennsylvania railroad drawbridge over Hackensack river. Dynamite was placed on a rail and allowed to float against the bridge, but, instead of striking the centre pier as was intended, it struck a hidden log and exploded. This attempt to wreck the bridge followed several letters threatening president Cassat with death and destruction of the railroad property, because he refused to employ iron workers affiliated with the Sam Brooks gang.

Katzenjammer Picnic

The monster benefit which is being rehearsed will require 50 local amateurs to interpret the Katzenjammer Picnic, as this musical comedy is called. It has enough plot to use as an excuse for the introduction of numerous specialties and funny situations. Those taking part have to make a greater effort to keep from laughing, than in the study of their lines. The picnic promises to be one of the most original and humorous theatrical productions ever offered local theatre goers. The Tacoma Ledger describes it as one long laugh. Great interest is being taken the rehearsal and each one is trying to make it a great success. So save your money and come and have two hours of fun.
