LA GRANDE SCHOOL OF MUSIC

PROF. DAY, Principle.

MRS. DAY, Assistant
This is one of the best musical institutions in the state. During the year 1904 there were nearly four thousand lessons given. The people in this city and valley are beginning to discover the great advantage of this school. The system used is the latest and most practical, and includes all the latest discoveries in the art of teaching music. The school is divided into two departments; No. 1 is for beginners, from 5 years up, and taking in the 1st to 3rd grades. In this department pupils come one hour every day. In No. 2 the grades are from 3 to 15. Here they graduate. Pupils take one or two lessons a week as they desire. No scholars will be permitted to remain in this school who do not study. Opposite the Foley House over the Candy Store Phone 473.

OFFERS THANKS FOR HIS SAFETY

Scripps News Association
Paris, June 1.—King Alphonso went to Chalons today in order to witness the army maneuvers, and was accompanied by President Loubet. Before starting, King Alphonso attended early services at the Catholic church of Saint Clothilda, where he offered thanks for his escape from death at the hands of the bomb thrower last night. The police made fifteen additional arrests of suspected anarchists this morning, but the certain man who threw the bomb has not been captured.

KAIZER URGES PEACE MEASURES

By Scripps News Association
St Petersburg June 1.—Advisors from Berlin say that the Kaiser yesterday forwarded an urgent dispatch to the Czar, urging him to make peace. The message was followed by a long autograph letter pointing out the reasons why Russia should give up the present struggle.

Call For Statements

(Scripps News Association)
Washington, June 1.—The comptroller of currency made a call on the National banks for a statement of the condition at the close of business on Monday May 29th

Woolen Mill Closes

The Pendleton Woolen mills will close down this afternoon for an indefinite length of time, owing to the extremely high price that is being demanded for scoured wool. Scoured wool is rated at 70 cents per pound and is difficult to get at that price. The salesmen have been called in and no more orders contracted for. The present stock will be disposed of as soon as possible.—Tribune

Katzenjammer Picnic

The entertainment to be given at Steward's Opera House for the benefit of the Commercial Club promises to be one of the best amateur productions ever given in La Grande. With a patience and never-flagging energy that is wonderful, the training of the young folks goes on under the able direction of Miss Thompson and slowly but surely the material is being whipped into shape promising a finished performance.

The production will go with a vim and snap, containing so many and varied specialties that the interest of the audience will be held from the rise to the final drop of the curtain. There will not be a dull moment. You will miss it if you miss it.
