

Dr Givens Removed
 Blackfoot, June 2—Dr J W Givens, superintendent of the Idaho asylum for insane, was removed at a special meeting for the board held for that purpose here yesterday. Various causes are assigned but nothing definite is known as to reasons. Dr C A Hoover of Montpellier succeeds Givens.

Suppress It
 Mayor Williams at Portland will do his city and all visitors to the Lewis and Clark fair a service by suppressing the noxious woman who has collected a company of shameless dancers for the purpose of giving an exhibition of indecent dancing near the fairgrounds. The west can get along without some features that have disgraced the eastern fair—Spokane Review.

Katzenjammer Picnic
 The Katzenjammer Picnic at Steward's Opera house next week will have more than the ordinary allowance of clever specialties. The sight fascinating young ladies participating will be one of the attractive features of the big show. The Quaker skit introducing four little people will carry the audience back to the early days in Pennsylvania. Then the four little Deutcher maidens right from Holland will give a wooden shoe dance characteristic of that country. The Chinese specialty Karama given by Mrs McCully will crowd the other features for first place in popularity. The Yankee Doodle Girl by Nellie Disque will give just the proper finish to a most enjoyable evening's fun. The above specialties are all of an ensemble nature in which the whole company will assist.

ATTORNEY GENERAL IS SORE

Scraps News Association
 Washington, June 2—The Attorney General is reported to be sore because Judge Gilbert has assigned Judge De Haven of California to try the land fraud cases at Portland, Oregon, to take the place of Judge Bellinger, deceased. The attorney general claims that Judge Gilbert has usurped the Presidential authority. The President wants the cases tried before Judge Hunt of Montana.

Thirty Indictments

By Scraps News Association
 Washington, June 1.—It is stated from authoritative sources that the federal grand jury has drawn thirty indictments as a result of the beef trust inquiry. It is stated upon the same authority that ten more will follow.

United States District Attorney Morrison, and his assistant attorney Page, were in Washington with evidence secured which they will place before the Attorney General. The investigation will be resumed June 7. It is said that twenty more witnesses will be called including men prominent in the beef trust.

Change in Cabinet

Washington June 2—President Roosevelt Wednesday authorized the announcement that Charles J Bonaparte of Baltimore would be appointed secretary of the navy to succeed Paul Morton, who earlier in the day stated he would retire July 1st to go to New York to take charge of the plans for the construction of the subway system for operation in connection with the surface lines. The president also authorized the statement that no other changes in the personnel of the cabinet was likely to take place in the near future. Secretary Shaw already has indicated his intention of resigning from the cabinet probably next February. Rumors of the retirement of Attorney General Moody have been published, but it is understood to be his intention now to continue in the cabinet for a year and a half and perhaps longer.

To all except President Roosevelt's closest advisers the announcement of the selection of Mr Bonaparte as the head of the navy came as a distinct surprise, although it had been determined on by the president for some time in anticipation of Mr Morton's retirement. In all the gossip Mr Bonaparte has not been suggested as Mr Morton's possible successor. For many years Mr Bonaparte has been an intimate friend of the president. So great is Mr Roosevelt's confidence in him that on many matters of national concern he has sought his advice and counsel.

Eminent as a lawyer and as a publicist, and a consistent advocate of civil service reform, Mr Bonaparte has not been supposed to have more than an academic in the navy. In the upbuilding of the navy, however, he is known to be in perfect accord with the president and doubtless will carry into effect the views of Mr Roosevelt in the strengthening of the naval establishment.

Mr Morton's announcement of his expected retirement followed a conference with the president lasting about an hour. It had been stated with authority that Mr Morton would retire July 1, provided the president would accept his resignation from that date, and today's statement therefore, officially confirms what has been known for several weeks. When he retires he will have rounded out exactly one year of cabinet life. He succeeded William H Moody of Massachusetts, who became attorney general.
