LA GRANDE SCHOOL OF MUSIC

PROF. DAY, Principle.
MRS. DAY, Assistant
This is one of the best musical institutions in the state. During the year 1904 there were nearly four thousand lessons given. The people in this city and valley are beginning to discover the great advantage of this school. The system used is the latest and most practical, and includes all the latest discoveries in the art of teaching music. The school is divided into two departments; No. 1 is for beginners, from 5 years up, and taking in the 1st to 3rd grades. In this department pupils come one hour every day. In No. 2 the grades are from 3 to 15. Here they graduate. Pupils take one or two lessons a week as they desire. No scholars will be permitted to remain in this school who do not study.

Hilgard Items

The weather is beautiful for the first time this spring.

Postmaster C N Lewis, who was taken seriously ill Sunday night, is improving fast under the care of Dr. Bacon.

Mrs. William Low left Monday evening for Pendleton where she will visit her parents.

Miss Maud Morton of La Grande spent Sunday in Hilgard visiting her friend Miss Frankie Heritage.

Walter Young, eldest son of Lee Young, was shot by accident Tuesday afternoon while out with his twenty-two, but the wound is only a flesh wound and no serious results are anticipated.

Mrs. Lee Young, who has been bed-fast for the past three months, is improving fast.

Miss Edith Heritage arrived on No. 5 Tuesday evening on a visit to her sister, Frankie, and a host of Hilgard friends. Miss Edith taught the Hilgard school some three years ago, and was loved by all her pupils.

Miss Julia Toomey has arrived from Ireland on a visit to her cousin, J D Casey and Jerry Crimmins. Miss Julia will remain during the summer.

J W Riley lost a valuable horse Saturday night. The horse was sick during the day and a Veterinary surgeon was summoned from La Grande but could not do anything to save the animal.

Mason Butler with his family has arrived in Hilgard to spend the summer.

Miss Olive Crawford of Kamela visited Hilgard friends Sunday, the guest of Mrs. J O Hart.

Mr. Ben Robbs of La Grande came up from La Grande Saturday night and spent Sunday with his niece, Mrs. Laura Hawes.

Mr. James Holmes visited his parents in Pendleton the last of the week.

The dance Saturday night given by Hill Banks and Joe Oliver was well attended and everyone had an enjoyable time. Another will be given one week from Saturday night. PUG

Buckley Promoted

M J Buckley yesterday was made general superintendent of the O R & N Company to succeed general manager J P O'Brien of the Harriman lines in the northwest.

Mr. Buckley's many friends in this city will be pleased to learn of his deserved promotion. He has been identified with the O R & N for many years and personally knows the necessities. In all former positions he has measured up to the expectations of the responsibilities and his step by step promotion is the just recognition of his services. Oregon is certainly fortunate at this time in having such thorough railroad men at the head of this company who understand our condition and needs.
