GRAND JURY

The functions of the Grand Juries, State and national, which for the past hundred years have been chiefly exerted against petty law breakers, has within the past year widened the scope of its vision to include a class of malefactors that have heretofore felt safe, because of their exalted position, socially, financially or politically, from the scrutiny of this branch of our government.

WHY NOT?

Now that the Grande Ronde Valley will soon have an abundance of electric power, why not use it to run threshing machines, headers, reapers and plows? During the Civil War news was carried to and from different parts of the army of the Potomac by and over insulated wires stretched on the grounds. It is within the range of practicability to convey electric power to run all kinds of farm machinery and implements by means of such wires to convey the electricity from the power plant to where used.

The United States Navy knows how to shoot, as the Spanish know, and any other possible future enemy may find out. One gunner on the battleship Kentucky hit a target 21x 17 feet 1.07 yards distant, with a five-inch gun thirteen times out of fourteen; another thir-

I. HARRIS THE MEAT MAN

Is still doing business at the old stand. Will be glad to see all his old customers as well as new ones. As good prime beef cattle is now scarce, I have on hand a fine selection of cured meats: hams breakfast bacon. About the fifteenth of May, I will have a fine assortment of young prime beef, which are now fattening. Do not forget that I now have as good fresh beef as there is on the market as well as fresh fish and poultry. Prompt Delivery Phone teen times without a miss and two other gunners twelve out of thirteen times. No belligerent warship could stand such gunnery long, unless it had better gunners; and no other navy has.

MONEY IN THE U. S.

The Circulation Statement, issued by the U S Treasury Department on June 1, 1905 gives the General Stock of money in the United States on June 1, at $2,369,344,583 being $15,365,063 more than the money in stock on May 1, this year. Of the money in stock there was $284,673,867 held in the treasury as assets of the government on June 1, being $8,701,033 more than was held in the treasury on May 1 this year. Deduct the money held in the treasury from the general stock, the remainder will be the amount of money in circulation. The amount in circulation on June 1, 1905 was $2,584,670,716 being $345,390,799 more dollars than were in circulation on June 1, 1904. The money in circulation gave a per capita circulation of $31.09 on June 1. In the statement before us from which the above figures are taken, the U S Treasurer estimated the population of the United States on June 1, 1905 at 83,143,000.

Minister Will Leave

Washington June 12—A Grop, who has been here 16 years as minister from Norway and Sweden and who is a Norwegian will sail for Norway next Tuesday. He is returning to personally learn the situation. When he called at the state department to take his leave he had not made up his mind as to his future course of action.
