North Powder

An Observer representative visited North Powder and vicinity one day this week after an absence of several years and was surprised to note the general improvement and evidences of prosperity manifest.

Land that a few years ago was considered even poor pasture land has had water brought upon it and today there are as fine fields of alfalfa as one would wish to see. The city of North Powder is keeping pace with the advancement of the surrounding country, and the bustle and stir among the business men and farmers have to be seen to be appreciated.

Their stores carry good stocks of merchandise. The hum of their flouring and saw mill give a life of activity and a long felt want has just been supplied by the establishment a few days ago, of a bank. The Echo News is a paper which the citizens take pride in supporting and it is loyal to their interests.

The North Powder valley is thickly settled and the waters of North Powder and other smaller streams are being utilized in making so many happy and prosperous homes that was not considered possible a few years ago.
