School Election

The annual school election for this district is taking place this afternoon. There is more than the usual interest being taken.

There is only one candidate being mentioned, that of Judge Eakin who, after being requested by many citizens of this district, finally consented to allow his name to be used.

The polls opened at two o'clock and will not close until 6 this evening.

The retiring director is engineer G.W. Hansen who is now living at Talocast. The other members of the board are Henry Young, the chairman, whose term expires next year, Frank Kilpatrick who has two years yet, F.S. Ivonhoe three years, and David Bay four years.

The board have an exceptional busy year ahead of them owing to the extra work required in the selection of a site and the construction of the new school house across the track.

Army Changes

Washington June 19—An official announcement was made at the war department Saturday that Major General John C. Bates and Major General Henry O. Corbin would successfully serve as chief of staff with the rank of lieutenant general after the retirement of General Chaffee next April. General Corbin becomes of retiring age in September, 1906, and General Bates in August, 1906. But the present plan contemplates that General Bates, who will be the immediate successor to General Chaffee, will be retired in advance of the regular time in order that he and General Corbin who will succeed him at the head of the army may divide the time between the retirement of General Chaffee and the date of General Corbin's retirement equally.

Major General George L. Gillespie, assistant chief of staff, was today placed on the retired list of the army at his own request. He will be succeeded by Major General John C. Bates. The war department also announced that Brigadier General John P. Story, chief of artillery, is to be promoted to the grade of major general and will be immediately retired and that Brigadier General George M. Randall, the ranking brigadier, will be promoted to fill the vacancy in the grade of major general. General Randall will be ordered to St. Louis to command the northern division. Colonel S. M. Mills of the artillery corps has been promoted to be brigadier general and chief of artillery. Colonel Thomas C. Lebo of the Fourteenth infantry is promoted to be brigadier general in the place of General Randall and is succeeded by Colonel Arthur.

Found a Cure for Dyspepsia

Mrs. S. Lindsay, of Fort William, Ontario, Canada, who has suffered quite a number of years from dyspepsia and great pain in the stomach, was advised by her druggist to take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. She did so and says, "I find that they have done me a great deal of good. I have never had any suffering since I began using them." If troubled with dyspepsia or indigestion, why not take these Tablets and see what they will do for you? For sale by Newlin Drug Co.
