They say that heache cures of any old kind are in great demand today.

Coxey's army would not stand any show whatever with that aggregation that held sway in our city yesterday.

We need a few weeks of warm weather, and no doubt it will arrive in sufficient quantities to cause us all to be supremely satisfied.

One year ago tonight something happened in the valley that we all have had occasion to remember ever since. That little frost coat this county considerable in excess of $400,000. That will soon be a past event, the preset crop will wipe out all the losses and then leave a surplus in most instances.

Heretofore we have always entertained a rather high opinion of our sister town, Baker City, but when that special car of hobos arrived last evening and conducted themselves as such on our principle street, we do not see how any city can harbor such a class, and make any pretense whatever toward civilization.

About every two weeks the report of the electric railroad is most flattering, but so far there are no outward signs confirming these reports. However, as none of our citizens are footing the bills which have run up into the thousands of dollars, beyond the intense interest of seeing actual work commence on the undertaking, we should be patient we presume. There is a great deal of agitation in Vermont over the proposed execution of the woman, Mary Rogers, and some people seem to have gone daft on the subject. These take the ground that a woman should never be executed. It is rather shocking to think of a woman being hang'd, but no more so than to think that a woman could be guilty of a brutal crime.

Uneasiness on the Franco-German frontier is still reported. Both governments are vigilant and both governments are making military preparations. While it is explained from both capitals that the negotiations are progressing satisfactorily, it is apparent that both governments feel they may yet resort to the use of the military machines they have stationed along the international borders.

It will be interesting to know what foundation there is for the report that Japan has ordered foreign merchants to leave Port Arthur, and, if it is true, why the step has been taken. An explanation will, no doubt show some wise military reason, but the case is badly confused up to this time.

HOW WE ARE BUILDING

We are building on a permanent foundation, and nothing is too good for us. Our strong line is the Adler, Bros. & Co., Rochester, made ready-to-wear. These are clothes that are honest inside as well as attractive outside. If you buy, and it proves to be otherwise, your money back without a word. Better satisfaction at $20 to $25 than can be secured in any other ready-made; as complete satisfaction as can be secured in first-class made-to-measure. This is our promise to all who make a trial of L. A., B. & Co., clothes, and we stand ready to redeem that promise to the letter. You are always welcome to drop in.
