THURSTON MAKES AN APPEALING SPEECH HENEY IS CLOSING

Portland Ore. July 1—Senator Thurston occupied the entire morning of the court including the argument for the defense in the trial of Senator Mitchell. He made a moving and eloquent plea attacking the indictment and the evidence and ridiculing the prosecution. He concluded his argument with a sentimental appeal for the defendant. The ex-senator flayed Robertson, the star witness, eulogized

Senator Mitchell and concluded with a splendid flight of oratory, appealing to the passions and prejudices of the jury. District Attorney Heney is making the closing argument for the prosecution this afternoon and the case will go to the jury late. Heney requested the court to postpone the trial of Congressman Williamson, which is scheduled for Monday, until after noon of the 10th. He also requested a new jury panel. The court took the matter under advisement.

is quiet enough and that the soldiers are maintaining order. All depends on the action of the battleship.

SEC'Y HAY IS DEAD

(By Scripps News Association)
The bulletin announcing the death of Secretary Hay read as follows:—"Secretary of State John Hay, died at 12:25 this morning." This being followed by the signatures of the physicians. The condition of Mr Hay during all of Friday had been fairly satisfactory, so the physician Chas F. Souder, M.D and Fred Murphy, M.D stated. Dr Souder said that Mr Hay did not suffer much in the final moments beyond the difficulty in breathing, and that there was no struggle. Stimulants were administered, but they produced no effect. After a lapse into unconsciousness, the secretary passed away.

Oyster Bay July 1—President Roosevelt learned of the death of secretary Hay at three thirty this morning, the news being brought to Sagamore Hill by a messenger from the village. A GREAT STATESMAN
Washington, July 1.—The death of secretary John Hay, whom future historians will describe as the greatest secretary of state that the United States has ever had, has caused profound grief here. It was hoped that the European trip had restored him to comparative good health, and the attack a few days ago was thought to be only temporary. The fact is that the secretary, for several years, has been suffering from heart trouble, which, it is believed, was developed shortly after the death of his son Adelbert. In addition to Choate, those mentioned as possible successors to Hay are Secretary Taft, Secretary Cabot and Professor John Fessenden Moore, of Columbia college.
