Local Items

An effort is being made to have all the stores close at 11 o'clock tomorrow. Mr. J. W. Stotts and wife left this morning for a visit to the Lewis and Clark exposition.

Mr. U. G. Couch, of Island City, was in La Grande today enroute to Portland and the exposition.

There was a good crowd up from Summerville today, who left on the special for the fair.

Misses Kathleen and Donie Kivett, who have been visiting their grandparents in Weiser, Idaho, for several days, returned home Sunday.

Col. and Mrs. Geo. B. Currey returned Saturday evening from their ten days trip which included Seattle, Tacoma, the G. A. R. encampment and the fair. They had a delightful time.

Mrs. Cummins, of Vermont, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. M. A. Crandall for the past week, expects to leave for her home Wednesday via Portland where she will spend several days at the fair.

Editor F. B. Currey is home after an absence of ten days spent at the Sound and the fair. He was simply struck with the greatness of the fair which greatly exceeded his anticipation.

Tomorrow, July 4, the B.Y.'s club serves ice cream and cake on lawn of Central church.

Misses Clara Stoll, Syd Budge and Bernice Ellsworth, of the Observer force, leave this evening for Baker City to attend the 4th of July celebration at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Dunn of Wyoming are in the city visiting their sons, C. S. and L. F. Dunn.

The base ball game yesterday at Elgin between the Elgin and Hot Lake teams resulted in a victory for Elgin. Score seven to six.

Remember the Grand Ball tomorrow evening at the Commercial Club. The ball is given under the auspices of the La Grande Base Ball team and the Grand March will begin immediately following the display of fireworks. A royal good time is assured.

The funeral services of Emilio Bondro, who died in this city Saturday, took place at the Catholic cemetery yesterday afternoon. Rev. Father Whyte performing the ceremonies, which were very impressive. A large number of relatives and friends attended the burial. Mr. Bondro was well and favorably known in this city where he had lived for some time. The burial was under the direction of Henry & Carr, undertakers.

Orders were received yesterday by Capt. Rogers, Co. L, that the Co. would leave La Grande the morning of the 22nd of July to attend the fair. There will be a weeks camp at Gerhart Military Reserve. The boys will be away about two weeks, and four days will be allowed to taking in the fair. The fair features will be shown on Portland Heights and a grand review of the Oregon National guard.

Yesterday afternoon a team belonging to one of the Wades of Summerville became frightened near the Ronda Valley house and ran away. The king bolt broke in front of the Golden Rule store and the horses ran down the street to the drinking fountain where one of the horses struck the fountain with sufficient force to break its front leg. The break was of such a nature that it was thought best to shoot the horse which was done at once. At the time the horses started to run, Mr. Wade and a young lady were in the buggy, but they were not injured.

Funeral Services

The funeral services of Peter Dowling, the La Grande base ball pitcher were held yesterday afternoon at three o'clock at the undertaking apartments of Henry and Carr, who had charge of the remains. Rev. F. B. Hayes, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, preached the funeral, and the interment followed immediately after at the Odd Fellows cemetery where a large crowd attended the burial. The members of the La Grande base ball team acted as pall bearers.
