Test Foreign Labor

Washington July 12—In order to test the capacity for work of Italian, Chinese and Japanese and also the contract method of securing and handling laborers, the Panama canal commission has decided to import 2000 men of each nationality for a 500 day contract, subject to renewal. Proposals for furnishing these laborers soon will be issued.

The number of 2000 was chosen because of being the approximate capacity of one ship to carry this number at a time. The laborers will be furnished by contractors and will have to be delivered before the 1st of December next. The government will furnish free hospital and medical attendance, unfurnished quarters, fuel for cooking and water. Under a recent dispatch from the attorney general all laborers will work 8 hours a day.

This class of laborers to the isthmus will not be entitled to enter the United States because of an act of the last congress which made the immigration laws of the United States applicable to persons coming from the canal zone to the United States.

Seven Released

Denver July 12—Seven prisoners who were serving sentences in the Denver county jail imposed for committing or conniving at election frauds in this city last fall, were released yesterday by order of the supreme court. Peter Miller and Michael Dowd, convicted of ballot box stuffing were taken to the state penitentiary today to serve the remainder of their two year terms. Fifty-seven persons in all were punished for violations of the election laws or of the injunction issued by the supreme court prior to the election last fall but all of them except Miller and Dowd have now been released.

Trail Amusements Close

Portland July 12—Two of the largest attractions on the Trail at the exposition yesterday ceased operations. It is alleged they have been running at a heavy financial loss, owing to the refusal of the management to permit the Trail to open on Sundays. The exposition management today reduced the price of the evening admission to 25c. This is understood to be a concession to the amusement places on the Trail, who are complaining of poor business and would like a larger attendance in the evenings.

After Dynamiter

Iola Kan July 12—Sheriff Richardson today organized a posse to search for O. L. Melvin, who is supposed to have wrecked the three saloons here with dynamite and who is still at large. One thousand pounds of dynamite which Melvin is believed to have taken from the magazine of a local cement works is still unaccounted for. Today Mrs. Melvin received a letter from her husband in which he said that 23 years ago he has been told "In a vision by God himself" that he was "strike the ram power a blow from the effects of which it would never recover."

"All the intervening years" says Melvin in the letter, "I have nurtured that purpose or command. Don't expect me home, for I am in this fight to a finish."

Warrants Issued

Olympia Wash. July 12—Twenty warrants were issued today for the arrest of Columbia river fishermen who have refused to pay the $50 scow license enacted by a late legislature. Every fisherman on the river is required to obtain a license from the fish commission under the act. The persons to be arrested are both the cannerymen and fishermen. A number of the former obtaining their fish from the fish stations simply transport them in launches and allege that the law does not affect their operation. The scowmen state that if the launch operators do not have to pay a license neither will they. A test of the new law will follow.

Duel On The Isthmus

Panama July 12—A duel with swords was fought Monday afternoon by Eusebio Morales, a prominent attorney, formerly fiscal agent of the United States at Panama, and Julio Arjona, a well known newspaper man and conservative politician. The trouble arose because of the publication of an article by Arjona reflecting on Morales. Arjona was slightly wounded.

Pioneer Dead

Joseph Keeney, former clerk of Umatilla county, and a widely known pioneer of eastern Oregon, died at Walla Walla Monday afternoon. Death came as the result of old age and chronic troubles with which the deceased had been suffering for some time. The funeral will be held at Walla Walla this afternoon.
