(Elgin Notes)

Elgin has been having some hot weather the past week. Sunday was one of the hottest days ever experienced in the town.

J W Hallgarth committed suicide in Portland Monday evening by turning on the gas. He was well known in this section, having resided in Elgin for several years.

Elgin defeated Alton in the ball game in this city last Saturday by a score of 7 to 6. There was no life in the game and it was very uninteresting to the spectators.—Elgin Recorder.

(Union Notes)

Dr. D Y K Dearing, of Portland, arrived Tuesday on a visit to Union.

H R Hanna was over from La Grande Tuesday, shaking hands with his Union friends.

To get drunk in the city is bad; to have one's hands and face painted all the colors of the rainbow and hair rubbed full of muckage while one is intoxicated is worse, yet such was the experience of a man from the country the other day.—Republican

W. MacFarlane is in charge of Wright's Drug Store, for a short time.

The many friends of Mr William Anderson will learn with sorrow, that he died at Tekon, July 11, of heart failure. Mr. Anderson lived for many years on Catherine Creek a few miles above Union and was one of the sterling, reliable men of the county.

J H Nichols broke the record for returns on strawberries. From a patch of ground containing 70 square rods Mr. Nichols sold $150 worth, put up 60 cans and supplied the table three times a day for a period of five weeks. Naturally we ask what is the value of land that will yield such returns and how long can it be bought at any price.—Scout.

The Herbaline treatments will cure all these troubles. See bottle. Newlin Drug Co.

An Opportunity For Home Seekers

700 acres of choice Farm and Orchard Land will be sold in large or small tracts to suit purchaser.

This farm is only 15 miles from La Grande, on the Elgin branch of the O. R. & N. Railroad, and is what is known as the Henry Rinehart Farm, and is located at the Rinehart Spur.
