KILLED AT A SAW MILL

Frank Page, an employee at Fisher & Chaudlers saw mill near Elgin, was struck by a piece of a broken wheel last Saturday, and so seriously injured that he died within a few hours thereafter. The flying iron struck him in the side, taking with it a part of his liver. The deceased was about forty-five years of age, and leaves a wife and two children. The funeral took place yesterday.

THE COMFORT

Of the ladies is well taken care of by us. We have succeeded in our efforts to make our restaurant the best place for the ladies to have their meals, and have tastefully arranged the different things to add attractiveness to the place, and make the surroundings pleasant

OUR RESTAURANT

Provides meals that are healthful and refreshing. The excellence of our cookery has been attested by the favorable comments of the many ladies that patronize us. If you would stop at our restaurant your nostrils would dilate at the pleasant odors our cookery sends forth. It would tickle your palate and after the meal you'd smack your lips and say, "That meal was very tasty."
