NOTICE TO FRUIT GROWERS

As the next annual meeting of the Northwest Fruit Growers' Association will be held in La Grande some time next winter, and as fruit dealers as well as railroad men attend these meetings, each looking after his own special part of the business, also fruit growers from all Northwest fruit growing sections, therefore no pains should be spared on our part to make the best of the situation.

This will be an opportunity we will not have for a great many years again, to show to the world what we can raise in the way of fruit, etc., so it behooves everyone to do something to show to these people what we have and can produce.

I desire to urge upon every fruit grower, however small, to do what he can to make this meeting what it should be and what we can, if we will, the best ever held.

Now is the time to begin to put away some of the best of every kind of fruit, etc., and let us make the best display ever yet made at any previous meeting of this Association. I believe we can if each one will begin now.

As I said before, not only fruit growers but fruit buyers, potato and other vegetable dealers, in fact, general commission men will be here from every part of the United States and Canada, looking for such things as they can handle. We do not look upon this as a trivial matter, but a purely business matter.

If you desire to establish a reputation for your goods, you must first list the articles you have the articles they want, and learn how they want them prepared for market, and that they can get them here.

I assure you that it cost no small effort to get this meeting of the Association here, as many other places know the benefits to be derived from these gatherings and many were the invitations to go to other places.

Now as we have it, let us show our appreciation by a good display of our best stuff.

C. D. HUFFMAN, Secretary.

Peculiar Will

Pittsburg, July 27.—The will of Miss Anna M. Gunning, well known and wealthy, who died July 18 at the age of 55 years, was filed for probate today, and is one of the most remarkable of documents. She leaves her estate of $200,000, after making bequests amounting to $48,000 to relatives, to Carl F. Miller, a well known business man, on condition that he divorce his present wife or that she dies. Otherwise he does not receive a penny.

Years ago Miller was the sweetheart of Miss Gunning, and she is said to have loved him devotedly, but after coarting her some time he married his present wife, who was Miss Jane Wilkins. Miss Gunning never forgave and never forgot.

Miss Gunning also wills to Miller all pictures, bric-a-brac and household furniture that he may desire, but in no case is Mrs. Miller to have any article or the use of any article.

Warren Killing

Weiser, July 27.—The news of a shooting affray yesterday at the mining camp of Warren was received here late this afternoon, in which Fred Morris, a gambler, was killed by J. W. Young, also a gambler. The men were partners in a gambling game. The killing was the result of a quarrel over a woman.

Morris was well known here where he formerly lived. His first wife, who secured a divorce from him, is a resident of this city. Morris had quite a reputation as a baseball player. He was for a time a member of the Boise professional team. He was shot three times.

LA GRANDE SCHOOL OF MUSIC

PROF. DAY, Principle.

MRS. DAY, Assistant

This is one of the best musical institutions in the state. During the year 1904 there were nearly four thousand lessons given. The people in this city and valley are beginning to discover the great advantage of this school. The system used is the latest and most practical, and includes all the latest discoveries in the art of teaching music. The school is divided into two departments; No. 1 is for beginners, from 5 years up, and taking in the 1st to 3rd grades. In this department pupils come one hour every day. In No. 2 the grades are from 3 to 15. Here they graduate. Pupils take one or two lessons a week as they desire. No scholars will be permitted to remain in this school who do not study.
