STRANGER GETS $3000

Racine, Wis., July 25.—The body of Henry Miller was found in Lake Michigan yesterday. A coroner's jury brought in a verdict of death by drowning. There was nothing to indicate foul play.

It is learned that Mr. Miller borrowed $3000 from the Melhardt bank at Burlington, on his personal note. It is said that Miller paid this money to a stranger who visited him last week and who represented himself as G. N. Pratt, cashier of the First National bank at Racine.

In return therefor the man gave him a tin box purporting to contain between $10,000 and $12,000 in mortgages on Burlington property. The deal was to be completed at Racine Friday, but when Mr. Miller reached this city the stranger had disappeared. Mr. Miller's mind has been deranged at times, and it is believed that the loss of the money affected him.

Exiles Brother

Constantinople, July 25.—The rumor that the sultan has banished his brother, Reo Had, the heir presumptive, as a result of the attempt last week upon his life, is generally accepted as true. The report is that the brother, by the sultan's command, has been taken to the Castle Tachiragan, where he will be incarcerated in the same quarters that the late Sultan Murad occupied and in which the former ruler died last year.

The attempt upon the sultan's life is declared to be the work of a palace plot, and it is said that the sultan had this crew of it and put his brother, who would profit by his death, in a place of safe keeping in order to forestall further plotting.

Fehmi Pasha, chief of the sultan's secret police, has been banished to Asia. The sultan decided to punish the chief for his laxity in allowing the plotters to approach near enough to his presence to attempt his life.

Near to Trouble

Washington, July 25.—Official advice reaching Washington fail to show any relief in the acute situation which has been developing for some time between the British and Uruguan governments over the imprisonment in Uruguay of the captain and crew of the Canadian fishing vessel Agnes Donahoe, for alleged poaching.

Several months ago the British government laid before the state department a full statement of its side of the case, and the American minister to Uruguay was instructed to use his good offices to assist in an amicable settlement. The British government takes the ground that as the contract of the Uruguan government giving to a certain company the exclusive right to fish in certain waters was a private contract and was not communicated to or recognized by foreign governments, the capture of a Canadian ship for fishing in these waters was illegal.

Union Against England

Chicago, July 25.—The Berlin correspondent of the Chicago Daily News says: Germany and Russia may join hands to make a strong naval front against England. It is said that the meeting of the czar and the kaiser has been mainly occupied with the question of the construction of the Russian navy. The czar is anxious to co-operate with Germany by establishing a strong defensive combine against the English naval forces.

Russia's new Baltic fleet is intended to supplant strategically the German Baltic squadron. Captain Hintze, who accompanied the kaiser, is supposed to be the coming man. It was he who had the dangerous squabble with Admiral Dewey in 1898. Admiral Diederichs was a mere figurehead.
