Miss Garfield left this morning for her home at Walla Walla where she will complete some plans for recitals to be given in the early autumn, and hopes to return to La Grande soon.

Mr Joe Hays of Macomb, is in the city, the guest of his nephew the Rev E B Hays, pastor of the Presbyterian church of this city. Mr Hays is representing the Chicago Interior, one of the leading Presbyterian papers of the United States.

Mr W T Cross, who has been to Portland with a train of hogs, returned this morning to La Grande and will spend the day and night with his family, leaving tomorrow for Kearney, Neb.

Mr. and Mrs. C D Emerson, of Lincoln, Nebraska, who have been here visiting their daughter, Mrs. M. Emerson, left this morning for points East, where they have friends and relatives.

Mrs. Ira Baird, formerly of this city but now a resident of Tacoma, arrived in the city this morning and will remain here today and tomorrow the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Grant. She is on her way to Colorado to spend the summer.

City Recorder Snook yesterday found Joe Williams, colored, guilty of violating the city ordinance regarding the use of city water and fined him five dollars and costs. Williams was charged with turning on the city water after the same had been shut off by City Water Superintendent Gilman.

On July 25th the school board of district No 1 met in regular session to receive the plans for the erection of the new school house across the track on the North side. All of the members were present and the plans were received and gone over thoroughly. So much time was used in going over the plans of the numerous architects that the business was not finished that night, and the meeting was adjourned until tonight, at which time the board will take steps in regard to the acceptance of some of the proposed plans. Plans were presented by Mr John Slater and Mr O B Thornton of this city, Howard & Swing of Pendleton, O E Troutman, Pendleton, and Medford Jones of Spokane. The action on these plans and specifications will probably be taken tonight.

Go To Huntington

Manager Murphy, of the La Grande base ball team informs the Observer that the team will go to Huntington tomorrow and play the Huntington team in the afternoon. This team owes Huntington a return game, and Sunday has been selected by the manager as the time. It will be remembered that the game played on the grounds at this place between the two teams was one of the best of the season, being a clean, good game on both sides from the beginning to the end. La Grande was a winner in the contest, but it was no walk over in any respect. It is stated that the Huntington team is now stronger than at the time they played here, and a good game is predicted. It will be a clean game also, for the Huntington boys do not play any other kind of ball.

The lineup for the La Grande team will be as follows:—Small, p. Stigrist, c. Van Buren 1st b. Crawford, 2nd b. Prow, ss. Childers 3rd b. Cotner, rf. Williams, cf. Murphy, lf.

Death of Baseball Man

New York, July 28—H. Vanderhorst, the well known secretary of the Brooklyn baseball club, died today of heart disease.

Boy's Club

The boy's club of Central Church will meet next Tuesday at 7 p.m. for the purpose of arranging for the gymnasium. No meeting this evening.

You can Shoot Grouse Aug. 15

I have just received a large supply of shells fresh from the factory, the kind that kills the game.

My stock of hunting coats, gun cases, and hunting supplies cannot be beat. Just received a large stock of shot guns and rifles, all grades and prices.

I also have tents, camp stoves, and wagon covers. If you are going camping or hunting, call and examine my stock.

MRS. T. N. MURPHY,

Builders' Hardware and Crockery.

Mrs E H Heath and Mrs McCormack of Nebraska, who have been visiting Mr and Mrs S F Newhart, left this morning for Portland where they will visit the exposition.

Albert Faulk, a nephew of I W Faulk of this city, arrived here yesterday and will remain here this summer. Mr Faulk, like his uncle is also a stone mason and will work at his trade here.

Mr G W Young of Walla Walla who has been visiting friends in the city the past few days, left this morning for Baker City. Mr Young was a resident of this valley in 1867, and formerly owned the Bud McAllister farm near this city.

J W Cook, president and manager of the Walla Valley Railroad company, passed through the city this morning enroute from Portland to Elgin. Railroad business at Elgin is still good and there is every evidence that there will be some interesting legal battles fought before either road begins to run cars.

La Grande seems to be the Mecca for all the one legged, sore armed, deaf dumb and blind grafters on the coast.

Yesterday the town was full of overflowing with this sort of gentry, all of whom were out with the itching palm. Some offered pencils, some books and others only advanced a tale of woe in exchange for the money which they expected to receive.

Mr George Parcell, of Rutledge Mo, is in the city visiting his sister, Mrs John Wilson. Mr Parcell is a merchant at Rutledge and while out in the northwest, is looking over the country with a view to locating. After leaving here Mr Parcell will visit the Lewis and Clark fair at Portland, and from thence will go to San Francisco before returning to his home.

Responding to an invitation from the Presbyterian Missionary Society of Union, a number of the ladies of the Presbyterian Society of La Grande visited Union yesterday. Those comprising the party were: Mesdames Grant, Eakin, Wright, Riehart, Holmes, Bootey, Harris, Brenholt and Thorne. A splendid program was given in the afternoon after which a delicious luncheon was served. The party returned home in the evening, all agreeing that they had been most royally entertained by the ladies of Union.
