Surprise Party

A large number of the many friends of Mr. J. R. Moore treated him to a pleasant surprise last evening. Yesterday was the anniversary of his birthday, but Mr. Moore knew nothing of the pleasant surprise that was in store for him. While reading after his dinner was over, he was called to the door by a knock and found a host of friends seeking admittance and wishing to proffer hopes of many happy returns of the day. The self invited guests were heartily welcomed and, after some time of pleasant conversation and the playing of games for the amusement of the younger folks, they were treated to cool refreshments of the season. All enjoyed themselves to the utmost, none more than Mr. Moore, and all the guests left feeling highly pleased with their impromptu reception.

Wins Pennant

Although defeated twice Sunday and once Saturday by San Francisco, her nearest opponent in the Pacific Coast league, Tacoma nevertheless won the pennant for the first season, which closed with yesterday's games. Seattle, trailender nearly all summer, escaped the ignominy of finishing in that position by an unexpected fight with Portland, and finished uncomfortably close to the Webfooters.

The Tigers have had little difficulty in keeping at the top of the ladder all season, and had the pennant virtually won a week ago.

The tabulated result of the first pennant race of the Pacific Coast League is given in full:
