morning from Portland where he went on business.

Mrs. Nels Holmerson, of Hilgard, is in the city the guest of her sister, Mrs.
James Porter.

Mrs. W. N. Weber, Miss Irene Weber and Earl Weber, of Joseph, were visitors in the city yesterday.

Mr. W. E. Taggart, of Enterprise, is in the city on a short business visit.

Mr. D. A. McFarlane, of Hilgard, was a business visitor in the city yesterday.

Mr. W. Allen who resides at Enterprise, is a La Grande visitor today.

Miss Essie Badler, of Enterprise left this morning for Hamilton, Mo., where she will visit friends and relatives a few weeks.

McKennon & Leadbetter sold one hundred head of beef cattle to Book & Thomas. They were in prime condition and brought good prices.

The attention of the readers of the Observer is called to the La Grande Pawn Brokers ad, which announces the arrival of a car load of eastern furniture which is to be exchanged for old furniture.

Mr. and Mrs. J. McAllister, of Indian Territory, are in the city the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jacobs. The Mc-Allisters are old time friends of Mrs.
Jacobs. They are on their way to the Lewis and Clark exposition.

J. D. Gillilan, returned last evening from the Wallows and will be in the pulpit both morning and evening tomorrow.

Mr. I. L. Poyser the advance agent of the Nat. Reiss Southern Carnival Co. is in the city perfecting arrangements for his company and will remain until the Carnival arrives.

Services will be held in the Presbyterian church tomorrow at the usual hour. Morning and evening services will be conducted by Rev. H. A. Ketchum, D. D. All are cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. George H. Carrey and children, and Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Huntington, returned this morning from Portland, where they have spent the past month visiting the fair, and points of interest in the vicinity of Portland.

Mrs. W. A. Head, who has been in Iceland City the past few weeks visiting her brothers Messrs. E. E. and Fred Kiddle, left this morning for her home at Jefferson Iowa.

J. B. Fisher has sold his Vendome hotel which he has been handling the past year and has returned to La Grande. He states it has been very hot at Weiser this summer registering above the hundred mark the past two weeks.

While Elder Gillilan was in Wallowa county this week he had the opportunity of dedicating a new church at Middlepoint. Mr. Cleaver, of this city was (though absent) a guest of honor as he gave them the new Epworth organ that was used on that occasion.

Mr. Andy Harris, of Wallowa arrived in the city last evening and returned on this morning train. Mr. Harris has just completed his hay cutting and states that he cut about five hundred tons. He was accompanied by his daughter Mrs. A. F. Lewis and grand daughter Louise Shilke, who left this morning for Portland to attend the exposition.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Murphy and son Vernon and daughter Helen, returned this morning from Chehalis, where Mrs. Murphy and the children have been visiting her parents the past six weeks. They visited the fair as they returned home. While away, Master Vernon met with an accident which caused the fracture of his collar bone. He is still strictly in the race however, as one broken bone would never put Vernon to the bad.

Mr. S. Lewis, the brother of Mrs. W. H.
Ferguson, of the Ronde Valley House has been visiting his sister for several days. He and Mr. Ferguson left this forenoon for a short visit to Hot Lake.
After remaining here a few days longer, Mr. Lewis will leave for the Portland fair, and from thence will visit San Francisco and other points in California, and well as some parts of Old Mexico.

Prof. J. B. Horner, of the Oregon Agricultural College, arrived in the city last evening from Wallowa county.
The Professor states that this is his first trip in to that fertile valley and he was most agreeably surprised at the great number of resources of the Wallows, and beauty of the scenery.
He also says that a large number of Wallow county's young people have signified their intention of attending the O. A. C. this year. The Professor will leave for Malheur County this evening.
