BOY INJURED IN RUNAWAY

Friday afternoon near Summerville a team driven by Henry Stevens, the ten year old step son of Morris Wright, ran away throwing the boy from the wagon, cutting his head badly. The plucky little fellow gathered up the scattered groceries and carried them down the road until he came to a sack of grain that was also spilled, and, after rolling it out of the way of passing teams, continued his way home. No physician could be secured at Summerville so Dr. W. D. Smith of this city was sent for to attend him. Seven stitches were taken in the wound and the little fellow is reported as improving rapidly.

Joke on Biggs

An amusing story is told at the expense of Marion K. Biggs, one of the defendants in the land fraud trials. Soon after he was placed on trial the first time, a month ago, he was debating one evening with a friend as to the probable result. The friend suggested that Biggs should consult a certain palmetto, who would be able to foretell with certainty the decision of the jury.

Though somewhat skeptical Biggs consented and visited the palmetto. Unfortunately, not even a palmetto can penetrate the secrets of a jury room and the information given was very vague. The story reached the ears of Biggs fellow defendants, Congressman Williamson and Dr. Geaner, and they had a great deal of amusement at his expense.

Hot and dusty weather prevails but crops are in first class condition and threshing is now in order.

There are a number of campers in the mountains above Cove.

Chandler McKennon was over from La Grande the early part of the week on business.

Revolutionists Stone

Tickets sold from Portland to North Beach points are issued in connection with the O. R. & N. steamers from Astoria, and baggage is transferred to and from depot and steamer dock at Astoria free of charge, and all tickets sold by the O. R. & N. Co. from Portland to Clatsop and North Beach points, are interchangeable and will be honored on trains of this company in either direction between Portland and Astoria.

Tickets sold at all O. R. & N. stations and passengers wishing to go to points on Clatsop Beach should specify, in order to avoid confusing this popular resort with that of Long Beach, Wash., which is reached only by boat at Astoria, thus causing delays enroute.
