Bringing Rescued Home

By Scripps News Association
Christiana, Aug 10.—The Terra Nova steamship which was sent out on March last to relieve the Fiala Arctic expedition, which was backed by the late Zeigler, bearing rescued members found in Franz Josef land, was sighted off Honningsvåg. One Norwegian seaman died from natural causes. Fiala's ship America was crushed in the ice in the early portion of the winter of 1903 and four men were lost.

The Deep Sea Diver

The experience of those who go down to the sea is nothing to that of a Deep Sea Diver. How many are there, who have seen a diver at work at the bottom of the sea, none, we venture to say, and yet how fascinating must be the vocation of one who does that kind of work.
Deep sea divers are employed to sink caissons in building sea walls and bridges and in submarine work their services are required every minute.
Would you like to see a diver at work? It can be done.
Capt. Louis Sorcho and his deep sea divers are with the Southern Carnival Co., and in a huge tank faced with heavy plate glass they can be seen at work arrayed in their regulation diving suits they show how sunken vessels are raised, dead bodies recovered, and in fact it is one of the most interesting sights to witness.
Capt. Sorcho, is the gentleman who was commissioned by the United States Government to ascertain the possible cause of the disaster of the United States battleship Maine, which was destroyed in Havana Harbor. It was through the work of the Captain Sorcho on this occasion that 268 bodies were recovered and a decent burial.

By all means see this exhibition
Another exhibition that will please and amuse is the Crazy House, it is without doubt the funniest thing you ever saw. You will see yourself in a thousand distorted views and you will laugh until your sides ache.
Don't take our word for it, try it.

More Licenses

As the time for grouse hunting draws nearer, the number of hunters licenses issued by the county clerk grows in number. This morning No 215 was issued and more are coming in daily.
The proceeds of the licenses will be devoted to the protection of all kinds of game in the state.

Insane Over Her Son

Albany Or Aug 10—Mrs Harriett L. Connett, of Sweet Home, was yesterday afternoon committed to the asylum. Mrs Connett is the mother of Ira Connett, the young man who was in jail here last summer, and broke jail several times before he was taken to the penitentiary for larceny of a rifle. He is now in prison. The woman worried so much over the shortcomings of her boy that her mind gave way.
