Local Items

Mr Press Lewis left this morning for Powder valley to buy and bale hay.

Members of Co. L, O N G will meet in the Armory Hall, Monday night, (August 14) for their regular drill.

Invitations are out for the wedding of Deputy District Attorney Crawford and Miss Anna Vickers of Los Angeles to take place there on August 16th.

L B Rinehart, a former Union county resident is reported to be quite ill at his home at North Yakima.

Director Hendricks informs us that the La Grande band will give an open air concert this evening at the fountain square.

The funeral of Miss Lena Ester Coy will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Presbyterian church.

Mrs L E Bailey of Staten Island NY speaks tonight in the Baptist church on "Home or Saloon. Which?"

Mr and Mrs Ed Kiddle and Mr and Mrs Chet B dwell of Island City are outing on Catherine creek.

J A Thronson and family have returned from several days outing on the upper Grande Ronde and report having had an enjoyable time

The Nelville Bros. with their families who have been living in California for the past two years have returned to Grande Ronde Valley.

The ordinance fixing the street grades for the city appears in this issue of the Observer, and should receive a careful reading by every property owner in the city.

Mr and Mrs Swisher, of Pennsylvania are spending a few days in the city, the guests of Peter Kuhn, while enroute to the Portland fair. Mr Kuhn and Mr Swisher are former school mates.

John Young returned this morning from the Wallamette valley where he purchased fifteen acres of land near Clackamas Station near Portland about three miles from where former postmaster J C Ardrey's purchased H C Montgomery is confined to her home, being quite ill.

Presiding Elder J D Gillilan, returned last evening and will hold services both morning and evening at the Methodist church.

J B Logsdon, returned home yesterday from High valley where he has spent the past six weeks superintending the construction of a large barn for J W Minnick. This is one of the finest barns in the valley, and covers a ground surface twenty four by fifty feet, besides a large shed on all four sides.

This morning's east bound passenger train came through in two sections.
The cause of the extra heavy travel was the wreck on Short Line. Many did not wish to leave Portland while travel was obstructed.

Mr and Mrs G M Buntin and Mrs A H Boles, of Drakesville, Iowa, the parents and sister of Mrs O H King arrived yesterday, having spent four weeks in Portland and Seattle. They will probably remain in La Grande several weeks

Mr and Mrs W P Bartlett, of Eau Claire Wisconsin, are here visiting their son, attorney E W Bartlett. Mr Bartlett is no stranger here by any means. For a number of years he was one of the stockholders in the Grande Ronde Lumber Co.

Dr and Mrs F E Moore are east on their summer vacation. After a week in Kansas City they will attend the Convention of the American Osteopathics Association in Denver. Dr Moore is an officer of this national organization, being one of the nine trustees and elected for three years.

Kolb and Dill

Kolb and Dill will make their first appearance in this city since their return from Australia, at Steward's Opera House. They will be supported by an exceedingly strong company of their own selection, which includes several popular artists and some new people who have just arrived here from the East under the special engagement to them. The program for Monday, August 21, is a revised and brought up to date edition of Judson C Brasie's musical eccentricity, "I O U", which affords them one of the best vehicles they have ever had for a full disposal of their great and varied ability.

DON'T START OFF HUNGRY

When we can satisfy your cravings for something good to eat at little cost.
Our food is selected with care, cooked with skill and served in appetizing style—we are not afraid to have you take a peep in our kitchen and see how we do things.

We will write volumes on how to cook but that would not do you one tenth the good that one of our regular dinners at 25c will. Treat your stomach with good eating and thereby make a wise head.
