Local Items

Prof. Hookenberry, Geo. L. Cleaver and William Miller returned from a fishing trip on the Walla Walla river Saturday.

Every small boy and most of the larger ones are aware that the carnival has arrived.

The reports from the Minam are that fishing was never better, from the fact that the stream is now lower than it has been for years.

Miss Caroline O. Smith left this morning for her parents' home at Clearwater, Minnesota.

Mrs. N. J. Garfield of Walla Walla arrived on No. 2 last night and is visiting her sister Mrs. J. D. Matheson.

Miss Elsie Ledworth spent Sunday with friends in Perry and returned to her post at the Western Union telegraph office this morning.

The excursion to Portland leaves La Grande in the morning at 9:15. There will be a great crowd go from this Exposition, and stopped off here to look after property in this valley.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Bartlett who have been in the city visiting their son E. W.
Bartlett, left this morning for their home in Wisconsin.

It is quite evident from the large amount of baggage and fixtures carried that this is by far the largest street carnival that has ever visited this city.

Mr. and L. C. Stanley, and Mrs. Fred S. Stanley arrived in the city this morning from Portland, and will remain in the city a few days the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Berry.

position with A. T. Hill, the druggist, and has charge of the soda fountain.

A subscriber phoned in today and asks what has become of the city ordinance with reference to untagged dogs. He seems to think that someone is not doing their duty or there would be less dogs or more tagged dogs.

The Misses Carrie and Pearl Hunter who have been visiting the fair and the coast returned home this morning.

Rev. J. D. Gillilan spent the day in Union returning this evening.

Frank Clark, deputy United States marshal, passed through the city this morning en route to Portland from Denver where he has been on official business.

Mrs. Kate Kuhn and son Master Blanchard and daughter Miss Jessie, arrived in the city last evening from Portland where they have been visiting the exposition. They stopped off on their way home in Omaha, to visit sition.

Messrs. Marr and Davidson, who are interested in the proposed electric railroad, are in the city. While the gentlemen state they have nothing at this time for publication, they feel confident that everything is coming their way and the road will be built.

S. A. McKennon and two daughters left Saturday evening for their home in Arkansas after taking in the fair and visiting relatives in this city. Mr.
McKennon is well pleased with this city and may return and locate. He is a man of means, and such citizens as we need.

What is supposed to be the advance leakage from the executive mansion is reported that Judge Bean will in a very few days be appointed judge to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Judge Bellenger.

The school board will meet tonight and they expect to select the site for the new school building and approve the plans for the same.

The Rev. G. H. Gibbs, secretary of the Board of Trust of the Columbia college at Milton, Umatilla county Oregon, paid the Observer a pleasant call this morning. He is traveling in the interest of that school which he represents as in a flourishing condition with an increasing patronage and bright future. This school is but six years old and last year it had an enrollment of 146 students male and female. The college building is a three story brick with a well appointed boarding house attached.

wondering where their vacation has gone.
