the city this morning. He reports the sugar beets in fine condition and the prospects for a good crop were never better.

George Carpy succeeded in securing a first class snap shot of Madame Liljen, the fearless high diver, yesterday as she leaped from her lofty platform.
The picture shows the intrepid lady, who tempts death twice daily, in mid air, and gives a perfect idea of the appalling risk she incurs for the amusement of the public. It required fast work on the part of Mr. Carpy to catch the lady in her aerial flight.

The wheat yield is showing up better than was expected, and the million bushel mark is going to be left away in the rear. This valley is going to experience more prosperity than it has ever known before.
