A Grim Tragedy

Is daily enacted, in thousands of homes as Death claims, in each one, another victim of Consumption or Pneumonia. But when Coughs and Colds are properly treated, the tragedy is averted. F. G. Huntley, of Oaklawn, Ind., writes "My wife had the consumption and three doctors gave her up. Finally she took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds which cured her, and today she is well and strong." It kills the germs of all diseases. One dose relieves. Guaranteed at 50c and $1 by Newlin Drug Co., Druggist. Trial bottle free.

Croup

Is a violent inflammation of the mucous membrane of the wind pipe, which sometimes extends to the larynx and bronchial tubes; and is one of the most dangerous diseases of children. It almost always comes on in the night (give frequent small doses of Ballard's Horehound Syrup and apply Ballard's Linctus externally to the throat 25c, 50c, $1.00, Newlin Drug Co

Demand For Butter

The Pendleton creamery has discontinued the manufacture of butter and is using the Umatilla county cream to supply the ice cream trade altogether. The creamery here has orders in advance for its produce so can spare no cream for the Pendleton branch. At present cream from Baker county is being shipped here for manufacture and the butter sent back. The long dry spell has lessened the supply of milk as feed is dry in every locality where irrigation cannot be used.

Not Presuming

It is not presuming, when it is suggested that who ever receives the nomination for the legislature from this county and joint representative and senators, will be expected to publicly announce their position on county division. Let the issue come squarely before the people.

Wedded in Elgin

Mr. Ott Vandermolen and Miss Margaret Klooster were married in Elgin Sunday and last evening came up on Elgin train to this city where they will make their home. Mr. Vandermolen recently built a residence in Acme addition of this city. Mr. Vandermolen was born and raised in this valley and Miss Klooster has resided here for several years.

MEAT CHEAP

But not Cheap Meat

Having purchased the Bock & Thomas shops and also the Bull Market, we are in position, with the three shops, to furnish our patrons with choice meats at a less price than if we had only one shop. It is not our intention to raise the price of meats, but it is our intention to reduce the price, and thereby hope to increase our trade. A trial order will convince you of the assertion.

ERRONEOUS IMPRESSION

With the purchase of three of the city meat markets by Grandy & Russell the impression has gotten abroad that the new firm will endeavor to form a monopoly and raise the price of meats now that they control most of the shops in the city. The proprietors especially desire to have it understood that there will not be a raise in meats of any kind, and if anything the prices will be slightly reduced.

By having the three shops the expenses are materially reduced and meat can be handled cheaper. For instance all of the slaughtering is done at one abattoir and the sausages and prepared meats are all made at the main shop, greatly reducing the expenses of operation.

Both Mr. Grandy and Mr. Russell are well known over the county for their strictly business methods and those who know them well have no fears about a raise in meats. Their solicitation for a share of the public patronage appears in this issue.

A Splendid Show

The large audience which witnessed Kolb and Dill and their musical comedy, "I. O. U." certainly enjoyed and appreciated the efforts of those three comical artists. Max M Dill as Imy Stantz, William Kolb as Ony Stantz and Ben T Dillon as Uky O'Rourke, the latter making a splendid "Foxy Grandpa."

Laughs from the very start tears rolled down the cheeks of the play goers as they laughed at the antics of the three hotel proprietors and applause greeted the merry makers every few minutes. Their jokes were all new and their antics lacked the absurdity often found in a play where everything is sacrificed to make fun.

The ballet of 24 pretty girls made a hit with the audience. Pretty costumes and graceful drills were their stunts. The sextette, "Blow, Blow, Blow," by the Misses Bain, Darragh and Tolon and Messrs. Kolb, Dill and Dillon was deserving of special mention as was also the graceful New Zealand Poi dance and song, "My Maori Maid," by the whole ballet.

WAS GIVEN UP TO DIE.

B. Spiegel, 1204 N. Virginia St., Evansville, Ind., writes: "For over five years I was troubled with kidney and bladder affections which caused me much pain and worry. I lost flesh and was all run down, and a year ago had to abandon work entirely. I had three of the best physicians who did me no good and I was practically given up to die. Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended and the first bottle gave me great relief, and after taking the second bottle I was entirely cured."
