SOUVENIR DOLLARS ADVANCE IN PRICE

Lewis and Clark Coins of 1904 now Bring
Three Dollars

ISSUE WAS LIMITED

The gold dollar souvenir coins of the Lewis and Clark Exposition are already commanding a premium over the price at which they were originally sold by the Exposition, which is a unique fact in souvenir coin history. This coin is a novelty compared with other issues of the United States—bearing a head on both obverse and reverse. It was produced at the Philadelphia mint.

The first coinage, dated 1904, consisted of twenty five thousand pieces, which were delivered to the Exposition last September. They were placed on sale at $2 each, and about ten thousand were sold up to February, 1905, at which time the remainder, fifteen thousand, were sent to the San Francisco mint and melted up. Ten thousand pieces of similar design, but bearing the date of 1905, were struck later at the Philadelphia mint. Most of the ten thousand 1904's were sold by mail to collectors; they have become widely scattered, many going to foreign countries.

The "wise" collector who, actuated by precedent, deferred purchasing a 1904 when they were obtainable, believing that he could purchase one later at a depreciated price, now discovers that those bearing that date are not easily obtainable, and the few in the hands of coin dealers command $3 each. Dealers had no reason to anticipate a scarcity, and purchased only for immediate demands, as souvenir coins have not proved a profitable venture for them.

The dollars dated 1905 continue to be sold by the Exposition at $2 each.

An Iowa preacher claims that he can play golf without using profane language. There are others who can do that, but the important thing is to be able to play the game without thinking profane thoughts.

School Time

Quite a number of people are securing houses so they can move to town and have advantage of our splendid public school. While some cannot be present at the opening, many will enter during the first month. Harvest will be advanced by that time, in fact many will have threshed. Prof. Martie, the new principal, is now organizing his work and with the excellent corps of teachers to assist, he has every reason to feel encouraged with the year's work ahead of him.

Tickets sold at all O R & N stations and passengers wishing to go to points on Clatsop Beach should so specify, in order to avoid confusing this popular resort with that of Long Beach, Wash., which is reached only by boat at Astoria, thus causing delays enroute.

LA GRANDE SCHOOL OF MUSIC

PROF. DAY, Principle.

MRS. DAY, Assistant

This is one of the best musical institutions in the state. During the year 1904 there were nearly four thousand lessons given. The people in this city and valley are beginning to discover the great advantage of this school. The system used is the latest and most practical, and includes all the latest discoveries in the art of teaching music. The school is divided into two departments; No. 1 is for beginners, from 5 years up, and taking in the 1st to 3rd grades. In this department pupils come one hour every day. In No. 2 the grades are from 3 to 15. Here they graduate. Pupils take one or two lessons a week as they desire. No scholars will be permitted to remain in this school who do not study.
