Birthday Celebrated

After the business session of the Order of Eastern Star last evening, the members went to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schilke and were royally entertained by the two serving committees. The occasion of the celebration was to commemorate the birthday of Robert Morris, the founder of the order.

The lawn was beautifully decorated with lanterns and electric lights. The wind mill frame was made into a bower and draped with the colors of the order. In this tower one table was spread and in the house a second one awaited the pleasure of the guests. Ice cream, sherbert, cake and coffee all of the best was served to the guests.

A short program, consisting of a paper on the life of Morris by Mrs.
Lyle, a piano solo by Gertrude Ralston, a vocal solo by Mrs. W B Sargent, a duet by Mesdames Ralston and Neil, two choruses accompanied by mandolins and guitars, a solo by Mrs. Neil with mandolin and guitar accompaniment, were listened to. The Misses Edna and Florence McCall furnished a number of piano duets for the evening's entertainment.

Robert Morris was born in 1818 on August 31 and the celebration of his birthday is usually either the last meeting of the order in August or the first in September.
