Local Items

Mr and Mrs Fred Jacobs have returned from the fair.

J H Pearce will occupy the room next door to J E Coffey's barber shop.

The wind storm yesterday afternoon blew Attorney Ashwill's new residence off its foundation.

Obelan, Wash., must have a new school house, and has voted $7000 bonds therefore.

S R Haworth returned Saturday from Wallowa where he has a contract to build the new bank building.

The amber winter wheat is considered a failure in the Palouse country.
It yields light and shatters badly.

With the exception of two buildings, the entire business section of Stevens-ville, Mont., burned. Loss easily $170,000, with inadequate insurance.

Mr. Dan P Jordan arrived last night on a visit to Henry Henson and family.
He will also visit the Portland fair, after which he will return here to remain.

The frame work for the Cleaver residence on Patroot is nearly up and it is evident that the building will be a splendid addition to that already popular resident portion of the city.

Rev. and Mrs. E Hayes of Canyon City, are in the city the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J C Henry. Rev Hayes was pastor of the M E church of this city many years ago and has many friends here.

The Hot Lake management has had considerable trouble the past few days keeping the tubes from being consumed by fire. Passing trains set the fields on fire, and it was only by continued watchfulness that the sanitarium was not consumed.

Eugene Holmes, of Wallowa, stopped off in the city this morning to visit his brother, Fred J Holmes, of Island City. Mr. Holmes was enroute home from Portland and hearing of his brother's accident stopped off a few days.

In this issue appears the ad of Brooks & Rohr, who have assumed the management of the Harris Meat Market. Messrs. Brooks and Rohr were formerly in the employ of Buck & Thomas, and are both experienced market men, and are not strangers to the people of this city.

In the September issue of Success there is a story entitled "A Friend Freshman," written by the youngest brother of Rev. J D Gilliam of this city, Mr. Strickland W Gilliam. He was formerly a resident of California but is now with the Baltimore American.

Mrs. Currey and children Roy, Carrol and Gladys who have been visiting in San Jose, California for the past two months, were met in Portland by Editor Fred B. Currey and after spending a few days at the fair returned home yesterday morning.

Rev. G. L. Hall, pastor of the Baptist church in Pendleton, occupied the pulpit of the Baptist church in this city yesterday morning. Rev Hall is no stranger here having conducted a very successful series of meetings last winter.

The Newlin Drug Co. has arranged to enlarge their business, and in order to house their increased stock have leased the rooms recently occupied by J H. Pearce and J E. Hough. A complete new set of plate glass, show cases, shelving and one of the largest stocks of stationery ever brought to Eastern Oregon, have been ordered and will arrive about the middle of next month. Over fifteen hundred dollars worth of fixtures have been ordered for the new rooms. The new rooms will be connected with the present store by large arches.

Mr and Mrs Jacob Newman have returned from the fair. They also visited the St Louis fair and in comparison are delighted with our own.

Hope Gone

(Scripps News Association)

Tokio Aug 28--The general public still remains uninformed regarding the latest developments at Portsmouth but are convinced that it is useless to hope for peace. The financial markets reflect this sentiment today and declined sharply. Shares on exchange declined twenty yen.

Proclamation

Scripps News Association

Little Rock Arkansas Aug 28--The governor this morning issued a proclamation forbidding freight trains carrying passengers or baggage or trains or boats entering the state from Louisiana.

been visiting the exposition at Portland the past few weeks returned home Saturday evening. Mr Hoffman states that he is well pleased with the fair.

The wires being over loaded today caused by the disabling of wires in many parts of the country caused by the windstorm yesterday, our telegraph report is somewhat abbreviated.
I am so fortunate in having any whatever.

Rev and Mrs W L Van Nuy and Miss Van Nuy, who have been in camp at Meachem for the past three weeks, have returned home to remain.
They enjoyed a delightful outing in the mountains.—East Oregonian.
