Wallowa Railroad Activity

Enterprise was visited this week by P A Worthington, representing the O R & N company, who talked railroad to our citizens in a very taking way. He obtained a list of the owners of real property through which the survey passes and announced his intentions of buying the right of way from one end of the valley to the other. All of his talk was to the effect that the road would be built very soon, all of which is very encouraging.

About the same time W J Cook, representing the Wallowa Valley Railroad company, came to town and talked railroad in a very taking way. He procured a list of the present owners of real property through which his proposed road is to pass and announced his intentions of procuring a right of way immediately.

He further announced that he wants the good people of Wallowa county to raise a subsidy of $150,000 and he will put this road through from Joseph to Walla Walla and the Columbia river giving connection with the open river, the Great Northern and Northern Pacific.

This, too, is very encouraging and leads the people to believe that a road will be built by one company or the other and possibly by both and that a great future lies immediately before this county.

The representatives of both companies passed on up the valley to interview the citizens of Joseph.—Wallowa Democrat.

FLOODED WITH OFFERS TO WED

Sonoma, Cal., Aug 29.—C Georgini, cook of the dredger Nevada, recently advertised for a wife in the San Francisco Chronicle. In three days he received 116 replies from women pining for a mate and of these 80 acknowledged themselves widows. Many of the women forwarded photographs. Georgini was unable to chose a mate from the deluge of letters.

Asks Bryan

H W Goode, president of the Lewis and Clark fair, on Saturday wired an invitation to the Hon W J Bryan to attend the fair, proffering him a banquet and a special day.

Has a Tramp.

That the railroad is coming soon can no longer be doubted. Somebody discovered a "tramp" the other day—the first one ever heard of in the county.—Wallowa Democrat

Claims Mines.

Washington, Aug. 29—Proceedings, it is said, will shortly be instituted in the supreme court of the district by Miss Lena Walton of Alaska, to enjoin or stop the secretary of the interior and the commissioner of the general land office from issuing patents or certificates of title to certain lands in dispute in Alaska involving an aggregate valuation of $1,000,000. The suit grows out of a dispute between Miss Walton and the Wild Goose Mining company of San Francisco over the possession of certain lands in Alaska Miss Walton claims $1,000,000 worth of land in Alaska, the mining company alleging, on the other hand, that the land belongs to the government.

It is announced that the litigation about to be commenced, not only here but at Nome, Alaska, to resist a judgment awarding the lands to the company, will also be commenced in San Francisco, where the principal officers of the company are located.
