Local Items

Judge Sam White came down from Baker City this morning.

Mrs. William Grant is visiting friends and relatives near Alsea.

Deputy Sheriff Tom Johnson has recovered his hunting dog which has been absent for several weeks.

Jack Kerr and wife returned this morning from Los Angeles where they have been for the past thirty days.

Chester Newlin returned this morning from the Sanger mines where he has been for the past few days on a hunting and fishing trip.

Mrs. Rosenbaum returned this morning from a three week's visit in California. She also stopped over in Portland long enough to visit the exposition.

Prof. and Mrs. Day have returned from their trip to the fair and the coast. They had a delightful time and will leave for the La Grande School of Music on September 11.

The morning passenger trains met here this morning and as a result the passengers on the east bound train were given an opportunity to take breakfast here. About two hundred and fifty passengers left the price of a breakfast in La Grande.

It would appear that Mr. J. K. Wright is looked upon by Umatilla county residents as a sporting man of note. He has been asked to frame up a mill from 30 rounds to a finish with any local celebrities by a Umatilla county aspirant for State honors.

Superintendent Gilman, who has a crew of men investigating the springs on the Folk place up Mill canyon, is well pleased with the results and states the flow of water is steadily increasing as the work progresses. It is to be hoped that a sufficient flow will be found to justify the city in bringing the water into the city.

The work of clearing up the wreck of the recent fire is progressing rapidly and within a short time a new building will adorn the present site. Mr. Oliver states that he is still in business and can care for the wants of his customers as well now as ever and that he has simply changed his place of business to the Slater building for the time being.

Wm. McGee, of Elgin who has been in the city the past few days, was an Observer caller this afternoon and states that railroad building on the Elgin extension is progressing rapidly. He states that there are now over one hundred and fifty men at work besides a steam shovel crew. It is his belief that the contract for the rest of the road through to Joseph will soon be let and that the people of Wallawa will have a railroad in the not very distant future.

Ralph Fowler is quite ill with typhoid fever.

Fred Honah was sold his property at the track to Charles H. ... and ... you possession.

Mr. and Mrs. Thronson, Mr. Wade of New York, and Mrs. L. O. ... this morning for the Muer ... or a camping trip.

Misses Chandler McKennon and Wm. Segrist returned this morning from a two weeks visit at the exposition and the coast.

Andrew Beck, of Elgin, left this morning for a weeks visit at Portland to attend the exposition.

Bid Rejected

The school board met last evening to open bids for the construction of the new school house to be built in the northern portion of the city but for some unexplainable reason there was only one bid, that of Louis Wright, for $11,700. The board decided to readvertise for bids which will be opened September 9th.

Miss Ails A. Chambers, of Union, was elected as a teacher and it is presumed will be assigned to the 6th grade.

Smut Fire

Highbarger's threshing outfit near Boardman, Wash., was completely destroyed by a smut fire.
