I earnestly recommend it to any one suffering from sprains." 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold by Newlin Drug Co.

Political Pot-Pie

(Union Republican)

I hear much about the new primary law these days, and note the warmth of the hand grasp of the prospective candidate.

Several lawyers have their rods up for the prosecuting attorneyship, and there will be a lively scrap for the democratic nomination, with a prospective split after nomination is made.

I am under the impression that candidates for the legislature will have the warm end of the poker at the next election. The legislative fight will be "fierce."

Thos. Johnson is said to be after the office of sheriff on the democratic ticket, Mr. Pennington's time expiring with this term by limitation under political rule. The republicans have a strong man for the office and will undertake to place it in the republican class in June.

The office of county clerk is an object of envy among office hunters, but I note Jimmie Gilham's 213 plurality over a popular field, and figure that he will be a hard man to beat for a second term.

The county recorder's office has been "spotted" by a La Grande man, and Mr. Proctor is to be given a race for the nomination.

Elgin having had two officers, recorder and commissioner, it is now proposed by some of our La Grande friends to offer the commissionership to North Powder. Methinks I can see an undercurrent of county seat fight in the change.

John Frawley has made a good treasurer, but there will be another republican candidate and a democratic candidate for his official moccasins.

Two elections, primary and regular, will be enough to satisfy the most violent anti-convention crank. People do not like to be called away from business too often, even to attend an election.

My old friend, Judge Harrison, will undertake to be re-elected upon his financial record. He is opposed to Lewis and Clark appropriations, and points to the debt reduction as an evidence of his prowess as a part of the county court.

Glancing over the political field, I note the possible candidacy of J. H. McLaughlin for sheriff, and John Kennedy for clerk, on the democratic ticket. From this distance it would seem that there will be candidates "to burn" on both sides of the political dead-line.

I can see some things to commend and some to condemn since the seat of government was moved to La Grande and may decide to specify later.

I understand that W. B. Sargent of La Grande would like to be county judge to succeed Judge Harrison, and there are others who might be induced to make a similar sacrifice, "one of whom I am which," but modesty forbids the announcement at this time.

I am now preparing a response to my country's call in event that a nomination should come my way; but if not, will be pleased to turn it over to some genius of less literary talent and a stronger pull.

Always ready to serve the dear people, I am,

With Much Respect,
A KICKER, E. q.
