COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF KING TALKS

Commander-in-Chief King, in his annual address, touched on many subjects of interest to the veterans. In opening his remarks General King paid the following tribute to the memory of his predecessor, the late General Blackmar:

"If the spirits of a higher and better world could revisit the scenes of their earthly labors, the first utterance that would fall from the lips of the devoted man who served you as commander-in-chief during the major part of this administration would be words of sincere affection for the dear old comrades whom he loved so devotedly. He would repeat to you what he had so often said with you, that your unanimous choice of him as your standard-bearer one year ago was an honor the equal of which could be conferred by no body of men outside of the Grand Army of the Republic, and that, so highly did he appreciate the confidence you then placed in him, he resolved from that hour to devote his time, his talents, and his fortune to your interests, and to make the success and upbuilding of the unique organization which you represent the study of his life. How he kept that resolve, you, who so lately gazed upon his splendid presence and listened to his impassioned words, will willingly bear witness. From the very beginning of his term his purpose was to do all that was possible to encourage the several departments, particularly those that were weakest or most remote, and, so far as lay in his power, infuse new life, energy and zeal into the ranks, and give to them added inspiration to continue bravely and manfully in the great work they were carrying on for God and country and humanity."

On the subject of Memorial Day the commander-in-chief said:

"That sweetly solemn day, so dear to the heart of every patriotic citizen, and so doubly dear to the valiant men whose loyal service of more than two score years ago led to its inception, has now become an institution of the land as firmly rooted and immovable as Independence day itself. And well it should be, for in the whole world's history no more beautiful sentiment is more generally and appropriately expressed than is this fidelity of the loyal living to the memory of the loyal dead."

"The observance of the exercises of Memorial Day has become so wide spread that at the present time scarcely a city, town or village can be found in this great republic that does not in some manner pay tribute to the nation's honored dead. And what a graceful form this tribute takes! The fresh and fragrant flowers, produced from nature by the power of nature's God, and the stately flag, with its stars and stripes emblematic of the thirteen colonies that gave it birth one hundred and twenty eight years ago, and of the forty five sovereign states that support it at the present time. What a significant combination, too, those marvelous floral productions of the generous earth given by the Father of the universe to appeal to the finer sensibilities of the soul, and that glorious star-spangled banner given by the Fathers of the Revolution to appeal to the love of liberty innate in every human heart. Glorious blending flowers and flag. Glorious symbolism, God and country. How fitting it is then that in death the graves of our country's saviors should be crowned by the emblem of the watchword that was their life."

The report of Adjutant-General John E. Gilman showed that the total membership in good standing on July 1 was 232,455, the number of posts being 6,031. The net loss of members for the year was 14,555.

Surprises Holdup

Eugene Or Sept 7—Monday night about 12 o'clock a man wearing a mask entered the saloon of J. T. Witter, at Springfield, and demanded the proprietor and his son, "Pony" Witter, who were both behind the bar, to throw up their hands. The elder Witter complied, but the son, with presence of mind, reached beneath the bar and grasping a bucket containing slop threw the contents into the holdup's face.

Surprised by such an unlooked-for assault, the robber fled.

BRIGHT'S DISEASE

Many people who are neglecting symptoms of kidney trouble, hoping "it will wear away," are drifting towards Bright's Disease, which is kidney trouble in one of its worst forms.

FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE

stops irregularities, strengthens the urinary organs and builds up the worn-out tissues of the kidneys so they will perform their functions properly. Healthy kidneys strain out the impurities from the blood as it passes through them. Diseased kidneys do not, and the poisonous waste matter is carried by the circulation to every part of the body, causing dizziness, backache, stomach trouble, sluggish liver, irregular heart action, etc.

If you have any signs of Kidney or Bladder trouble commence taking FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE at once, as it will cure a slight disorder in a few days and prevent a fatal malady. It is pleasant to take and benefits the whole system.

How to Find Out.

You can easily determine if your kidneys are out of order by setting aside for 24 hours a bottle of the urine passed upon arising. If upon examination it is cloudy or milky or has a brick-dust sediment or small particles float about in it, your kidneys are diseased, and FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE should be taken at once.

G. B. Burhans Testifies After Four Years.

"About four years ago I wrote you stating that I had been entirely cured of a severe kidney trouble by taking less than two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure. It entirely stopped the brick-dust sediment and pain and symptoms of kidney disease disappeared. I am glad to say that I have never had a return of any of those symptoms during the four years that have elapsed, and I am evidently cured to stay cured, and heartily recommend Foley's Kidney Cure to anyone suffering from kidney or bladder trouble."

LA GRANDE SCHOOL OF MUSIC

PROF. DAY, Principle.
MRS. DAY, Assistant

This is one of the best musical institutions in the state, and the people of this city and valley are beginning to discover the advantages of this school. The system used is the latest and most practical, and includes all the latest discoveries in the art of teaching music. The school is divided into two departments; No. 1 is for beginners, from 5 years or more and are taught the first three grades. Pupils come one hour every day. This is no Kindergarten system but far superior. In No. 2 the grades are from 3 to 15. Here they graduate. Pupils take one or two lessons a week as they desire. No scholars will be permitted to remain in this school who do not study.
