LA GRANDE SCHOOL OF MUSIC

PROF. DAY, Principle. MRS. DAY, Assistant

This is one of the best musical institutions in the state, and the people of this city and valley are beginning to discover the advantages of this school. The system used is the latest and most practical, and includes all the latest discoveries in the art of teaching music. The school is divided into two departments; No. 1 is for beginners, from 5 years or more and are taught the first three grades. Pupils come one hour every day. This is no Kindergarten system but far superior. In No. 2 the grades are from 3 to 15. Here they graduate. Pupils take one or two lessons a week as they desire. No scholars will be permitted to remain in this school who do not study.

NELSON WINS IN EIGHTEEN ROUNDS

hard with a left to the jaw. Britt wriggled out of the corner then Nelson swung right and left to the jaw sending Britt to the ropes. They exchanged blow for blow being in the middle of the ring. Both were fighting hard. Britt did terrible execution and Nelson appeared to be weakening a bell rang Britt had better of round and landed four blows to Nelson's one. Nelson looked a bit weak when time was called.

ROUND VI

Britt shot two lights and backed away with Nelson following him eagerly looking for a m.x. Nelson straightened him with a left and right hook to the jaw and they went breast to breast. Suddenly Nelson sent a vicious left to jaw and in mix after re-ovewing fight and left in face sent him down with right and left hand chops. It looked bad for Britt and his seconds threw water on him. It was a terrible fight. Nelson raining blow after blow on Britt's jaw and head. Britt was apparently helpless. Nelson was tired from his own exertions and could not land a knockout blow as the bell rang. Nelson was the strongest and looked as if Britt could not stand much longer. He came up gamely but was too weak to do damage.

ROUND VII

Nelson shot left to Britt's face. Britt contented himself by boxing. He swung to face with right and left to Nelson's face. Nelson unrelentingly followed Britt around the ring. Britt landed two lefts to jaw that would have staggered many a fighter. Nelson seemed willing to accept Jimmy's blows with blow for blow. Jimmy's fighting is so strenuous that both tired. Nelson drove Jimmy to the ropes with a left and right to jaw mixing it. Jimmy swung left to jaw but did no damage. Jimmy fought Nelson from clinches and finally landed left that staggered him. Jimmy followed the advantage with a right and left with swings to the jaw as the bell rang. Nelson went to his corner seemingly in distress. It was Jimmy's round.

ROUND VIII

Britt broke down before the Dane. Britt holding Nelson. They mixed with left to right. Britt then slipped to floor and was up quickly. Nelson shook his head as they exchanged rights. They went to close quarters Britt was in his corner but sent a terrific right to jaw which Nelson returned with a right and left which staggered and left uppercuts. Nelson had the better for the fighting in close quarters. Britt kept hammering as the bell rang. Britt landed on Nelson's jaw with a terrific right and all silence was thrown to the winds. As the gang sounded Nelson was the weaker of the two from Britt's avalanche of blows.

ROUND IX

Nelson covered and then forced Britt around the ring as usual. Britt tried and uppercut with left and Britt sent two lefts to Nelson's face. Britt landed two more left jobs then another, and another varied with a right jaw punch but all failed to phase the Dane. He came back fiercely and as Britt struck rather low he was warned. In exchange Nelson put two uppercuts in Britt's face and body then Britt, finding Nelson in an exposed position landed two terrific rights on Nelson's jaw. Nelson kept trying to get in close quarters but Jimmie smashed him at a distance. Jimmie had all of the heavy force of the battle and every inch was closely contested. It was almost the limit of human endurance. Both led with lefts but missed. Jimmie sent in several jabs with his left to face but received a right uppercut. Jimmie fought back landing a left to the body almost at will.

ROUND X

Nelson went after Jimmy to keep within close quarters but Jimmy was too shifty and clearly outboxed Nelson. Jimmy then landed a right to the jaw wobbling Nelson's head. Then followed with a fierce exchange both landing telling blows. Jimmy then shot his left to jaw then put two stiff rights in same place. Nelson continued to receive Jimmy's rights and lefts but nothing could stop him. Jimmy clearly outpointed Nelson and had the best of the round.

ROUND XI

Both men landed a left and Nelson forced as usual. He kept boring in but Jimmy sent right and left to his face and they hooked with lefts to body. Jimmy stabbed Nelson with a left to face and after landing two fierce blows shot a left hard to the jaw but could not make Nelson keep his distance. They clinched and exchanged face blows. Jimmy in a rally swinging right and left to face. The Dane still went in, the blows falling short. After receiving a right and left on jaw the Dane uppercut Jimmie with a left on the jaw Jimmy seemed to gain much strength and continued to jab systematically.

ROUND XII

The Dane followed his opponent around the ring. Jimmy kept him back with terrific uppercut to today. He followed with a right and left to the jaw and followed it with another and shot two lefts to Nelson's face. Britt averted Nelson's attempts to land but the Dane never wavered. Britt forced with a clinch and a right and left about to jaw. The Dane seemed to take punishment without apparent effort and showed no distress. Britt had the advantage of the round.

ROUND XIII

ROUND XIV

Jimmy appeared to be all in but rallied in sensational manner and swung rights and lefts to jaw.

ROUND XV

They at once mixed. Jimmie led rights to face, missed hard left and drove in right and left to Dane's head. Jimmy kept preparing at Dane but latter came out all right. Jimmy hooked right to body and then shot right to body and then shot right to jaw. Other blows followed resulting in Jimmy's round.

ROUND XVI

Both were up quickly sending in lefts and rights. Britt missed most of his blows and shot a left hook to wind. He hooked the Dane's stomach and drove right to head smothering Nelson's attempts to clinch. Nelson weakened and received two lefts and rights which made him wince. Nelson took the terrible punishment but never faltered.

ROUND XVII

Both missed lefts to face and Nelson rushed but Jimmie fought every step of the way, swinging twice to jaw and hooked left to body. Nelson sunk to his knees in the fierce onslaught which followed but Britt lacked advantage to get in finishing licks. Nelson was very weak and was met by two stiff jolts in the face as he arose. Nelson suddenly hooked his left in Britt's face. Nelson was warned against battling and they mixed. As the bell rang Britt missed a right and left for the jaw. The round was Britt's.

ROUND XVIII

Jimmy peppered away with left to jaw. Nelson forced Jimmy around the ring, finally going to a clinch. Nelson was twice ordered to let go and in a rally Jimmy put in two lefts to body and right of Dan's jaw, jarring him. Previously Nelson had scored with two lefts to body. Jimmie continued to hook right and left to Dan's jaw and varied with a stiff left to stomach. End came in a rally. Jimmy had just scored on Nelson's jaw when suddenly Nelson shot his left and right to jaw like a flash to Jimmy's jaw. Jimmy went down like a log, gasping for breath and with blood streaming from his mouth and nose. The total seconds were counted out by the Time Keeper Harlin. At the call of ten Jimmy made a feeble effort to rise but immediately fell back, uttering "Defeated."

Jimmy Gardner posted $1000 and challenged the winner.

Funeral of C. Ralston
