Rev. Mower Welcomed

The broadening of brotherly love and good will was certainly exemplified in its fullest last evening at the Methodist church in the expression of welcome extended to the Rev. H. H. Mower the new pastor, and his family.

La Grande years ago, however, broke away from the traditional narrowness that was carried down from the bigoted ages, and brethren of the various denominations have worked in unison along common lines for the uplifting of the masses.

A very interesting program was presented, presiding elder J. D. Gillilan responded to "On Behalf of the District." Professor H. J. Hockenberry on "On the Local Church"; "City Ministers" was the topic assigned to Rev. O. H. King, pastor of the Central church. The subject presented by Rev. Edwin B. Hays was "Fraternity" which he defined as brotherly love. Unexpected conditions prevented Rev. Day of the Baptist Church from speaking on "Cooperation", and "Denominational Unity" was the topic presented by Rev. U. H. Gibbs of the St. Peter's church.

The kind spirit of welcome as reflected by each speaker was not a mere phraseology of words but those present were deeply impressed with the idea that permeated all of the speakers of their one common purpose in life, for the redemption of man through the blood of the Lord Jesus Christ.

At the conclusion of the various remarks which were dispersed with music including a beautiful duet by Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Williams. Rev. Mower, while overcome with the generous expression of welcome, responded in a manner that convinced all that he came here with the purpose of putting his shoulder to the wheel and do his part.

After the program, the two hundred or more people enjoyed a social hour during which refreshments were served and it was quite eleven o'clock before good night was said. It was a meeting that will long be remembered for with such freedom of speech and unity of action among the pastors of a city the size of La Grande, it means much toward continual advancement.

Health Report

The health report for the three districts of Union county, for the month of August, gives a total of three cases of tuberculosis, four of typhoid, and one of diphtheria. There were five deaths and seven births. Two births and one death at Union, while there were eight births and two deaths at La Grande and the same number at Elgin. The foregoing figures indicate that while you will live longer at Union than either of the other places you might not attend so many birthday parties, each month.—Scout.

Well Pleased

W. I. Dishman and family returned Monday from a trip to the Lewis and Clark fair. Mr. Dishman says they enjoyed a very pleasant trip, and that the fair is simply great. He also states that Union county has a very good exhibit in comparison with other counties of the state. Miss Maud Victor accompanied them on the trip.—Elgin Recorder.

Cattle Contracted.

Ontario, Sept. 9—A band of 2000 head of Grant county cattle for feeders have been contracted for delivery at Ontario on October 1. The price for which the cattle were contracted was $2.75 per hundred weight, the cattle to be weighed here. This is a slight increase over the prices offered for feeders or beef a few weeks since, and is an indication that the cattle market has an upward tendency.

Seed Wheat

I have at my place near Iowa school house, five miles north of Island City, on Rural Free Delivery No. 1, a limited quantity of the famous Russian Turkey Red wheat, suitable for seed wheat, which I will sell at a reasonable price. I have found this wheat to be a splendid yielder, having harvested two hundred and seven sacks off of ten acres. I have found it to rust proof and it stands up well. This last point was demonstrated during the recent wind storm.

This wheat is a good weigher. By actual weigh I find that it will weigh one hundred and forty pounds to the sack. It is a well known fact that ordinary wheat will only weigh about one hundred and twenty.

Contractor Injured

Mr. Harris from La Grande, who has been busily engaged in building a salmon hatchery on the Wallowa river several miles below this place, met with a serious accident a short time ago. He was on a scaffolding putting the cornice in place when without any warning the staging gave way, and threw him violently to the ground which was a considerable distance below. As Mr. Harris is quite an elderly gentleman, the injuries sustained are very serious and at present confine him to his bed. As soon as he gains sufficient strength he will be taken to his home in La Grande.—Wallowa News.

Lost The Soap

Single Eaton is mourning the loss of a nice batch of soap, and, incidentally, a cow. The soap was lying idly by when bossy began fooling around and got a taste of it. It seemed to be a little strong, but she liked it, and so ate the whole works. Then the soap got busy. It was a regular Jonah for that cow. Things had gone so far with that soap that there was only one thing to do. So it began to eat the cow. Within ten hours bossy's soul had departed from the earth, and still the soap ate on. People say there is nothing left of the remains but the bones, and they are going fast. We'd like to buy a cake of that soap. We'd like to feed it to a subscriber or two.—Freewater Times.
