State Conference

This state conference of all of the wards in Oregon of the Church of the Latter Day Saints, convened this morning at their house of worship in this city—Apostle Hyrum M. Smith, son of President Joseph Smith, is present as is also Elder Kesh of Salt Lake. Two meetings a day are being held, one in the day and one in the evening. The exercises tomorrow are expected to be interesting and a special feature will be the singing in the morning and afternoon sessions

New O R & N Sidetrack

A new side track 3000 feet long is being built on the O R & N, half way between Union and Telocaset stations, on what is known as Telocaset hill, in order to allow trains to meet on the hill

It is 10 miles from Telocaset to Union and often trains are greatly delayed in waiting for another train to climb the mountain and by meeting half way up the hill much valuable time will be saved in the rush. It is possible a section house will be built here, also.—East Oregonian

Serious Accident

This morning while Chancy Cook was hauling wood down the Ladd Canyon hill, the wagon and load turned over and caught Mr. Cook under the load. Mrs. Wm. Banton, near whose residence the accident took place, telephoned to Attorney Turner Oliver, stating the facts and advancing the information that she did not think that Mr. Cook would survive the accident very long. Mr. Oliver at once communicated with Dr. N. Mollitor who is now with the injured man. It is to be hoped that the doctor will find that the injured man is not so badly hurt as Mrs. Banton thought. Mr. Cook was in the employ of Mr. Lige Oliver at the time the accident occurred.
