Mr and Mrs H T Williams and baby left this morning on the west bound train, Mrs Williams to stop at Menahan for an outing and Mr. Williams for Portland where he goes on a business trip.

M L Carter of the Sandridge was an Observer visitor while in the city today. He states that thrashing has just about commenced in his vicinity. His crop which is about the same as others went 4500 bushels to 135 acres and one eighty went 36 bushels.

Claud Fullerton, the O K & N fireman, left last night for Portland and Seattle, where he will visit the fair and his parents who reside at the latter place. From Seattle he goes to Denver to look after mining interests. He will return in a few weeks.

Mr and Mrs T A Rinehart left this morning for Portland to attend the Rinehart reunion which will be held at the Oregon building Wednesday morning. It is expected that at least fifty of the family will be in attendance on the opening day of the reunion.

William Connolly, assistant superintendent of the O K & N, is in the city from La Grande today.—E O

Mr and Mrs W H Bussard, of La Grande, arrived here this morning from that place and left on the north-bound train at 9 o'clock.—E O

The dry season this year has worked a hardship on several farmers near Summerville, owing to the fact that springs that have never gone dry heretofore have done so and in some instances parties have to draw their water four or five miles.

Some one went and helped themselves to forty sacks of barley from the field of Jack Smith, on the Sandridge, and so far there is no claw. Nearly every year some one goes to the penitentiary for just such work and this season may prove no exception.

THE PUBLIC SCHOOL

The High School 'phone is red 851. Mrs. Fred Schilke is substitute teacher for this year.

H N Peach is janitor this year, in the High School building.

Miss Annie Tullis is in the eighth grade from Pueblo, Colorado.

An interesting meeting of the city teachers was held last Friday afternoon.

Edgar Pickler, formerly of Weiser, Idaho, has taken up the work of the eleventh.

A set of supplementary readers have been purchased for the use of Mrs. Neill in the North side school.

Pupils who missed final examinations last year are required to take an examination before entering the next higher grade.

Enrollment first day in the schools is 676. For comparison it may be added that the enrollment on the first day two years ago was 667, and last year it was 659.

New teachers this year are Miss Swan, and Mr T L Williams, High School, and in the grades, Misses Harris, Deal, Brenholt, Chambers, Williams and Noble.

Miss Deal, who attended the Educational Congress at Portland, reports that the Congress was a source of much enthusiasm to her professional life.

The use of the High School telephone between the hours of 9 and 12 a m and between 1:15 and 4 p.m. is prohibited except to members of school board, and the secretary of the board. This will explain the refusal of the central exchange to connect patrons with the High School line within the hours above indicated. Patrons of the city schools and others are at liberty to use the 'phone at any other time.
