Bridges Concert Tonight

A chorus of one hundred voices will be heard tonight at the Presbyterian church as a result of the musical training course which has been in progress under the direction of the Bridges Concert and Convention company. This entertainment begins

The chorus which has been in training, shows a marked improvement, and their songs and choruses will be a treat to the song lovers of this city. As a direct result of the visit of the Bridges people, a permanent chorus with Thomas Williams as director and promptly at 8 o'clock, and the concert to be given by the Bridges people will begin at 9 o'clock. If you cannot get there in time to hear the first, the latter is well worth the price of admission and should not be missed.

George L. Cleaver as assistant director, has been organized. The chorus will continue the musical studies through the winter and will be an active organization in the music sphere of this city.

Germs?

Germs? Forget them. See that every part of your body is kept clean, well nourished, and unweakened.

Science has shown that germs characteristic of many diseases are in and out of us just about 365 days in the year.

These micro-organisms become busy and harmful only when they find partially devitalized tissues to nest in. Have your osteopath see that every part of your body receives its nourishment and nerve force uninterrupted.

Boat For His Farm

Dr. N. G. Blalock of Walla Walla is having a small stern-wheel boat built at the Portland shipyards to ply on the upper Columbia river and act as a sort of feeder to the craft which are carrying freight to the portage road. The doctor owns a farm on an island in the Columbia and the boat will be used for transporting all of the produce from it to the nearby landing, as well as handling other freight. She will also carry passengers. The craft will be 50 feet long and when completed will be shipped to her destination on one of the steamboats running on the upper river.

DRESSMAKING—Mrs. Drake will teach you dressmaking, tailor system. No chart. All you need is tape line and yard stick. All lessons typewritten for reference. Class terms $15. Call for further particulars at 4th and Q street.

Queen Eshter

The sacred opera, Queen Eshter, will soon be presented in this city by local talent under direction of Martin E. Robinson. The Commercial Club has undertaken this production and will secure the co-operation of as many of the singers as is possible. The first rehearsal will be held in the Commercial Club rooms Thursday evening at 7:30 and all who will join the class and help to make this the greatest musical production ever given in La Grande are cordially invited to be present at that time. Mr. Robinson carries books and costumes for the entire cast and chorus and the benefit of the drill and instruction makes it well worth ones while to attend the rehearsals. Coming as it does immediately after the successful class of Mr. Bridges it will continue the good work he has commenced.

Circus Coming

Almost every circus claims to have a show that cannot be duplicated and an aggregation of performers the like of which cannot be brought together, but the fact is that every circus of any consequence has a double force and a double equipment.

There are really two circus troupes which have to travel about. The leaders are liable to injury. A sprained ankle will put one of the best performers out and there must be a man to take his place. Possibly the substitute will make as great a hit as the regular. Even the performing horses have their substitutes.

It is a fact not generally known that the Great Floto Show carries two complete large canyasses. In case one is destroyed by fire or storm another must be ready to put up. When a failure to give a performance entails a loss of from $10,000 to $20,000 for expenses the matter becomes serious.

The big show comes to La Grande Oct 9.
