POLITICAL RANCHOR

One of the many hopeful signs of the present time in the United States is the apparently gradual diminution of political ranchor and malicious bitterness. The older generation recalls the acrimony that characterized political discussions in the days of their youth. The Democrats sang with great glee and unctious at their clubs, mass meetings and barbecues, "Mr Clay don't you know for your many crimes, you ought to have been hanged a thousand times?" And instead of Mr Clay answering this question the songster by the chorus made this as his profile. "He hangs his head, his mouth wide open.
Like the gourd we keep soft soap in."

Clay was a leader of the Whip party that succeeded the old Federalist. Alexander Hamilton, the first U S Secretary of Treasury, under Washington was denounced by the Democracy as being the heart and brain of the Federalists, and no public man in the United States was ever so maliciously and falsely abused as was Alexander Hamilton, during his life time and for many years after he had been killed in a duel by a political opponent. The Federal-ists were charged by the Democrats with being opposed to the freedom of the masses and desiring of returning to kingly rule. There are men yet living who have heard Hamilton denounced as an arch conspirator against the rights of man and the freedom of the people, and many to this day believe it.
Because these false accusations and their prejudices were so deeply inground that they would neither listen to nor read anything that did not accord with and fatten the hatred they had for Hamilton, and the old Federalist party.

Hamilton lost his life in 1804 a few years after the final defeat and death of the Federalist party and the ascension to power of the Democratic party, which practically held sway until 1860.
Before his death and forty years before the passage of the Pre-emption law, and more than sixty years before the Homestead law was passed by the Republicans, Hamilton wrote: "The free holder is the natural supporter of good government, and it should be the policy of Republics to multiply their freeholders, as it is the policy of monarchies to multiply tenants.
We are a republic and we wish to continue so; then multiply the class of freeholders; pass the public lands easily and cheaply into the hands of the people; sell for a reasonable price to those who are able to pay, and give without price to those who are not. I say give without price to those who are not able to pay; and that which is so given, I consider sold for the best price; for a price far above gold and silver; a price which cannot be carried away by delinquent officers, nor lost in failing banks, nor stolen by thieves, nor squandered by an improvident and extravagant administration. It brings a price above rubies—a race of virtuous and independent farmers, the true supporters of their country, and the stock from which its best defenders must be drawn."

While the party that slandered Hamilton was in power it gave not an acre of land to the actual settler; it fought the Pre-emption law for thirty years, and the Homestead for sixty, but never ceased to slander Hamilton as an imperialist and autocrat and friend of oligar-chists.

Plowing is the order of the day in this valley. The farmers were just waiting for a rain and they are now busy seeding.

Incredible Brutality

It would have been incredible brutality if Chas. F. Lemberger, of Syracuse, N. Y., had not done the best he could for his suffering son. "My boy," he says, "cut a fearful gash over his eye, so I applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which quickly healed it and saved his eye." Good for burns and ulcers too. Only 25c at Newlin Drug Co. drug store.

Strikes Hidden Rocks

When your ship of health strikes the hidden rocks of Consumption, Pneumonia, etc., you are lost, if you don't get help from Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. J. W.
McKinnon, of Talladega Springs, Ala., writes: "I had been very ill with Pneumonia, under the care of two doctors, but was getting no better when I began to take Dr. King's New Discovery. The first dose gave relief, and one bottle cured me." Sure cure for sore throat, bronchitis, coughs and colds. Guaranteed at Newlin Drug Co's. Drug store, price 50c and $1.

CHEAP MEAT

Is High at Any Price

Some meat markets may sell you a good looking piece of meat for a few cents cheaper than it would cost you at a reliable market and you won't know until after you have tried to eat it that you have been deceived.

We offer you the best meats that can be bought anywhere—the best that money can buy. We guarantee it and charge a fair price, which is cheaper in the end. You cannot get something for nothing, especially in meats.

We have everything in the market line that you can wish for.

MEAT CHEAP

But not Cheap Meat

Having purchased the Book & Thomas shops and also the Bull Market, we are in position, with the three shops, to furnish our patrons with choice meats at a less price than if we had only one shop. It is not our intention to raise the price of meats, but it is our intention to reduce the price, and thereby hope to increase our trade.
A trial order will convince you of the assertion.
