MYSTERIOUS NEW YORK MURDER

Three Found Dead in Woods and One Dying

By Scripps News Association. New York, Oct. 7.—A triple murder was revealed today, when the bodies of Willis and Fred Olney were found in the woods a half mile from the home in which last night the body of Allen Ingerick was found.

and is expected to die at any moment. Willis aged 32, and Fred aged 36 had been robbed. Their pockets had been turned and their money and watches were gone, which indicates that the man was shot near his home and was taken in a wagon to the edge of the woods and dragged a quarter of a mile through the brush.

They are: Frank Howard sentenced to four years for larceny from a box car; Myron Slaght, larceny of a mare, two years; Mike McDowell, larceny of a mare, one year; and H. C. Brown assault with intent to kill, two years.

WALLOWA WANTS A RAILROAD

The following from the Wallowa News is the "size up" of the Wallowa county road situation. The News does not seem to have any clear idea regarding which company will build, but rather expresses a hope that both roads will come into the valley. "In many ways the construction of a railroad into this section will benefit the county and citizens therein. There has been a great deal of discussion among our residents as to which railroad will build into this section. Thus far it has been almost a quandy and wholly unproven other than by promises and contracts given that the road would be in operation within two years.

Quite a number of people have accepted this as proof positive that the Wallowa Valley Railway Company would build; their surveys are at work and are rapidly nearing the town, they are setting grade stakes and making all necessary movements preceding the letting of contract for grading. This seems to be sufficient proof of their object.

A few days ago E. A. Holmes of the W. M. Co., received a letter from Manager O'Brien of the Harriman interests informing him that the O. R. & N. would have their line completed within eighteen months, that will give this county two roads within two years. Let us hope that such will be the outcome of the plans so well laid by Wm. J. Cook, and that Wallowa will have a competitive line, and that she will not have to face just what comes handy, but that she will have not only freight traffic assured but will also have a direct outlet to the Great Northern and the open river. Competition is the life of trade and when two great corporations come together in competition the common classes reap the benefit.

Won't Give Up

(By Scripps News Association.) Toledo Oct. 7.—An application was made to the court by Ramsey this morning asking the removal of the election inspectors for the Wabash, which were appointed at the last annual election, declaring that they were not qualified by education or experience to serve and declares that he is still president of the Wabash, despite the action taken by the directors removing him and alleges that certain stockholders are preparing to vote illegally and fraudulent proxies and asks for a qualified inspector to be appointed.

The case was adjourned until Monday and Ramsey ordered to show percent of stock necessary to make application for new inspection. Ramsey's attorney stated that they would make the proper showing.

Going To Pieces

(Scripps News Association.) Eureka, Oct. 7.—It is believed by shipping men that the steamship St. Paul can not last a week of the heavy seas now washing over her. She is now fast going to pieces, and wreckage from the doomed vessel is strewn along the coast for miles. According to reports from incoming boats today the hull is still intact, but is pounding in a most distressing manner. The boat railings have been washed away and the cabin will be the next to go. Agents of the underwriter's association left this morning for the scene of the wreck to make an inspection. It is believed that the experts accompanying the agents will recommend that the craft be abandoned. The remaining passengers were taken north this morning by the steamer Alliance. No provision for the crew of the St. Paul was made and their experience last night was something fearful. The owners of the vessels are severely criticized for their neglect of the crew and this morning citizens are raising funds with which to send them to San Francisco.

FIGHT WITH PISTOLS

(By Scripps News Association.) New York, Oct. 7.—After 38 years of married life Denton H. Hopkins and his wife Jessie, fought a duel with pistols in the latter's home in Brooklyn. The woman is dead and Hopkins is a prisoner in the Brooklyn hospital. The shooting was witnessed by Hopkins's sister, Mrs. L. Bruyn of Walden, New York.

The couple separated a short time ago after a quarrel over the disposition of the property held in common, the husband appeared at the house and a quarrel started. Hopkins hardly appeared before the woman drew a small revolver from her bosom and fired over Mrs. Bruyn's shoulder. Before she could fire again Hopkins pushed his sister aside and grasped the wife's smoking pistol with his bleeding hand and drew a large revolver fired three times. The first two shots took effect making fatal wounds and the third passed over her head. She sank to the floor and expired almost immediately. The couple have one son, Henry O. Hopkins, who is a business man. Hopkins is a steel engraver aged 63 years.
