Adelaide Herrmann

There will be cause for wonder and mystery at Stowarts Opera house Saturday Oct 14, for Madame Herrmann with her imps of magic and her entertainment of mirth will hold high carnival there. To witness an evening's performance as the Herrmann audience is like taking a visit through Fairyland and as the magician's programme this season is very elaborate and crowded full of spectacular magi-phenom ina, few will possibly miss the opportunity of seeing her. She carries with her special lighting apparatus, surprising electrical inventions and a special leader of orchestra to introduce new melodies and accompanying airs.

Night School

If enough pupils can be secured I shall open a night school in the central city upon the following plan:

I shall teach one subject one evening each week from 7 o'clock to 9, the first hour to be given to those beginning the subject. The charge will be two dollars per month for each subject. The subjects taught will be English Grammar, Arithmetic, Rhetoric, Literature or as many of them as there are classes large enough. Those who wish to enroll will please give their names to the Observer office, to Mr. F Kilpatrick or to myself.

Street Gown

A pretty and expensive street gown worn by Miss Vernice Howard as Flit Follies, in "Why Women Sia" which comes to the Stowarts Opera House Tuesday Oct 10, was designed by Lord and Taylor of New York, and is exquisitely made of heavy embroidered grass linen, deep cream color, daintily trimmed with delicate Point D'Esprit lace and insertions; the town gown draped over with pale blue taffeta silk. Miss Howard wears this costume in the first scene of the third act, which is laid on the Riverside Drive in the metropolis.

CHEAP MEAT

Is High at Any Price

Some meat markets may sell you a good looking piece of meat for a few cents cheaper than it would cost you at a reliable market and you won't know until after you have tried to eat it that you have been deceived.

We offer you the best meats that can be bought anywhere—the best that money can buy. We guarantee it and charge a fair price, which is cheaper in the end. You cannot get something for nothing, especially in meats.

We have everything in the market line that you can wish for.

MEAT CHEAP

But not Cheap Meat

Having purchased the Book & Thomas shops and also the Bull Market, we are in position, with the three shops, to furnish our patrons with choice meats at a less price than if we had only one shop. It is not our intention to raise the price of meats, but it is our intention to reduce the price, and thereby hope to increase our trade. A trial order will convince you of the assertion.
