MONEY IN UNITED STATES
The Observer received yesterday from the Secretary of the U S Treasury his monthly 'Circulation Statement' dated Oct. 1st 1905. This is a little sheet of fourteen lines of good sized type, but has condensed therein more information, that every person in the United States ought to know to assist him or her, whether rich or poor, in conducting their private business or by their votes influence the shaping of public policies, than many large volumes. From it we learn that on October 1st 1905 the money in stock consisting of $1,387,257,928 gold coin and bullion in treasury; $559,433,865 standard silver dollars; $115,246,222 subsidiary silver coins; U S treasury notes of 1890 $3,795,000; U S notes (green backs) $346,681,016; National Bank notes $516,352,240, total $2,933,766,271.

This is an increase of the money in stock over that of Sept 1st last of $12,372,186; an increase of $412,406 per day for September last.

The treasury department estimated the population in the U S on Oct 1st this year at 83,609,000 and if the general stock of money in the United States was equally divided among the people the per capita or share of each would be $35.09. By comparing the money in the U S now with the past some idea of the betterment of the nation, financially, may be reached. In 1877 the per capita of money in the U S was $16.46, in 1890 it was $26.9, in 1900 it was $30.66 in 1903 it was $33.40 and on Oct 1st 1905 it was $35.09.

As a large quantity of the money in stock is habitually held in the U S treasury and is not in circulation among the people they are far more interested in the money in circulation as it is at that they have a chance. On Oct 1st 1905 there were held in the U S treasury as assets of the government $309,535,880. Deduct this from the total stock of money in the U S on that date and there was left in circulation $2,624,230,891 which if it was equally divided among the whole people the share of each would be $31.39. This is the largest per capita of money ever in circulation among the people in the United States. In 1800 the per capita of money in circulation among the 5,268,483 people was $5.00 in 1860 it had grown to $13.85 or two and three fourths fold in sixty years. In 1870, just after the civil war the per capita of money in circulation was $17.50 and in 1905 it is $31.39 showing a gain of a fraction over two and a quarter fold in forty five years. If the per capita circulation should increase in the same proportion from 1903 when it was $29.42 to 1905 when it was $31.39 a gain of 98 1/2 cents a year by the time sixty years have elapsed from 1800, that is in 1920 the per capita of circulation will be $46 1/4 or a gain in the sixty years of three and two fifths fold.

The above figures show that the United States and the people thereof are getting along better than in ye olden times.

MERCURY
WORSE THAN THE DISEASE
The effects of Mercury and Potash are worse than the effects of Contagious Blood Poison, for which these minerals are generally used. They cannot cure the disease, and in addition set up a poison of their own, producing dyspepsia, by drying up the gastric juices, salivation, sores, mercurial rheumatism, and often necrosis of the bones.

Gentlemen—For over four years I suffered greatly from a severe case of Contagious Blood Poison. I went to Hot Springs, staying there four months at a big expense. I then consulted physicians, who prescribed Mercury. Nothing did me any good, in fact the treatment proved more harmful than beneficial. Thus I continued to suffer for four years. I mentioned my case to a friend, who told me that S. S. S. had certainly cured him. I at once commenced its use, and in six months could find no trace of the disease whatever. This was about two years ago, and there has been no signs of return. D. M. SANDERS.

S. S. S., a remedy made from roots, herbs and barks, is the only known antidote for Contagious Blood Poison. It thoroughly and permanently eradicates the poison from the blood so that no sign is ever seen of the disease in future. S. S. S. builds up instead of tearing down the system, as do Mercury and Potash, and when it has cured the disease every part of the body has been toned up by its purifying and tonic effects. S. S. S. also removes any effects of the mineral treatment from the blood. We offer a reward of $1,000.00 for proof that S. S. S. contains a particle of Mercury, Potash or any other mineral. Home treatment book and any medical advice will be given without charge.
