The basket ball game pleased our girls and brought them sufficient funds to enable them to pay for the fitting up of the Armory hall.

Mrs. Rohlike, our substitute teacher, has generously donated a day's services to each of our teachers who may wish it, to enable teachers to visit the work of other rooms and thus improving their efficiency by an exchange of ideas. Miss Hadlas of the A fifth was the first to visit, spending last Wednesday in rooms near her own in grade.

The White school corps of teachers has a combined attendance of 206, an

The school is indebted to the generosity of the school board for a number of added supplies and conveniences authorized at the last meeting among which are two large umbrella stands

CHEAP MEAT

Is High at Any Price

Some meat markets may sell you a good looking piece of meat for a few cents cheaper than it would cost you at a reliable market and you won't know until after you have tried to eat it that you have been deceived.

We offer you the best meats that can be bought anywhere—the best that money can buy. We guarantee it and charge a fair price, which is cheaper in the end. You cannot get something for nothing, especially in meats.

We have everything in the market line that you can wish for.

MEAT CHEAP

But not Cheap Meat

Having purchased the Book & Thomas shops and also the Cull Market, we are in position, with the three shops, to furnish our patrons with choice meats at a less price than if we had only one shop. It is not our intention to raise the price of meats, but it is our intention to reduce the price, and thereby hope to increase our trade.
A trial order will convince you of the assertion.

Cheated Death.

Kidney trouble often ends fatally, but by choosing the right medicine, E. H. Wolfe, of Bear Grove, Iowa, cheated death. He says: "Two years ago I had kidney trouble, which caused me great pain suffering and anxiety, but I took Electric Litters, have also found them of great benefit in general debility and nerve trouble, and keep them constantly on hand, since, as I find they have no equal."
