"THERE IS ONLY ONE THING TO DO"

"Treat My Daughter's Baggage the Same as any Other Private Citizen"

Secretary Shaw and the collector of ports of San Francisco are reported to have been somewhat perplexed over the instructions how to treat the baggage of Alice Roosevelt, on her return from her Asiatic tour in the Philippines, China, Korea and Japan. The president's daughter received many hand some and valuable presents, the value of which has been estimated as high as $100,000. On this valuation the duty would amount to about 60 per cent or possibly $60,000. A suggestion has been made that the personal effects of the president's daughter should be treated as the baggage of diplomats, crowned heads and dignitaries governments and admitted free. Secretary Shaw is reported to have taken the matter direct to the president with the result that President Roosevelt said: "There is only one thing to do. That is to treat my daughter's baggage as you would treat the baggage of any other private person. She will pay the duty on the things that are dutiable."

MITCHELL MAY NOT HOLD SEAT

A correspondent of the Oregonian writing from Washington says Senator Mitchell's attempt to retain his seat in the senate to the end of his present term will probably be frustrated, for it is understood that at an early date the government will ask the supreme court to advance the case against Mitchell and fix an early date for its consideration.

It is further stated that President Roosevelt is anxious that Mitchell's case be disposed of. In all probability, the government, through the solicitor-general, will soon ask the supreme court to advance this case and set a time for its hearing. Several government cases have already been advanced, but none are as important as the case against Mitchell. This is considered sufficient ground for the supposition that the Mitchell case will be set for early argument, possibly before the Christmas holidays.
