Club Dances

The Commercial Club which was to be held at the Club next Friday will not take place until Friday October 27. This change is made in order that the rehearsal for "Queen Esther" may continue uninterrupted. The entertainment committee assures the public that the series of dances which have been arranged, and the first of which will take place on the date mentioned, will be of a high order. J. M. Murphy, J. B. Gilham, J. P. Donnelly, Dr. L. D. Reavis, E. E. Romig, E. M. Ebersole, A. V. Andrews, entertainers committee.

Remarkable Case

A good illustration of the possibilities of Osteopathy is afforded by a recent case at Hastings on the Hudson to which many newspapers gave extended space. The patient, supposed to be suffering from a blood clot on the brain, refused to submit to an operation. Instead he called in an Osteopath, who made certain structural corrections which resulted in very rapid improvement. At last accounts the patient was well on the road to recovery.
