Full Course For Winter Recreation

All who wish to encourage the high est grade of entertainment should at once fall in line to help insure the course.

The minister's union, Professors Martin and Hockstetter and others endorse the plan. The course will consist of five members. J Whitcomb Stronger will deliver one of his humorous yet instructive lectures, Judge A Lowell well known and popular as a speaker will furnish an address.

Kisworth Plumstead, who has entertained from Baltimore to San Francisco, will give one of his delightful evenings.

The Harry F Butterworth Co., will furnish one number. This company consists of Mr. Butterworth, basso; Hattie Rood Grace, soprano and whistling soloist; Miss Rosentower of Berlin, violinist and Miss Mabel Marion Wallace, artistic reader. One other musical attraction will be given making a well balanced course suited to varied tastes.

The course will be given in Central Church which is finely situated and arranged for the work. The inclined floor, the furnace heating and the excellent acoustics of the building make it very desirable. Holders of season tickets may without extra expense reserve seats for the course. The price of tickets for the series is but $1.50 a remarkably low figure when the talent secured is considered. Pupils of our schools both city and country will be given season tickets not transferable at half price.

Tickets enough to cover cost of course should be engaged at once. If you wish to be of the greatest service in pushing this enterprise speak for tickets without delay. O H King carries a list and will enroll you or you may leave your order at the Observer office or at Seldar's candy store.

Police Busy

Scraps News Association.
New York Oct 23—The police are trying to solve the mystery revealed by the capture of the sloop Derado which was luxuriantly fitted out with silvers, Oriental rugs and loaded with expensive bric a bra which is supposed to have been stolen from the homes of millionaires along the coast and carrying the effects of Midshipman Jackson, U S N who disappeared from the battleship Missouri apparently going with Olga Maxwell, whose effects were also found on the sloop. Jackson was found some time ago, by his father in Canada, in a dazed condition and did not remember leaving the ship and could recall but little of what took place after joining the woman.

Five Years in Pen

After Big Game

San Francisco, Oct. 23.—According to a report received here Jim Jeffries and Governor Sparks of Nevada killed a 480 pound cinnamon bear last Thursday after a 5 mile chase with dogs in Grizzly valley. ## Still Experimenting 18 Mathews, who placed one of his irrigation and power wheels in the Grande Ronde river on the Oldenburg farm will install one in the Dos Chutes river as an experiment. The wheel has worked successfully in several streams, both as a power and irrigation wheel and does not require a dam, as it lies flat on the bottom of the stream or is supported on the surface by framework, just as may be needed to secure best results. There is a growing demand for some practical irrigation wheel and Mr Mathews believes he has made the right discovery. His wheel can be used in any size and is inexpensive and appeals to farmers who can raise water from nearby streams without the expense of dams and costly canals.

Saturday Night's Show

Those who visited Steward's opera house Saturday night were agreeably surprised to find that the "Pride of Blue Canyon" presented by the Empire Theatre company was much more cheerful and elevating than "A Broken Heart" which was presented the night before. The whole cast with one exception is deserving of special mention. A R Brooks as a 49'r was typical for the part he took and A R Harvey as Judge Ananias Lovetoddy was the joy of the whole evening. His love for the spirits that cheer and his ability as a judge amused everyone. Minnie Adams as Triss and Madeline Wheeler as Mother Grimes, and Miss Prim were fine. We reserve the right to say that Frank Dara who took the part of Jack Hamilton, the villain, should have his voice filed or engaged in calling hogs. Even in making ardent love to a young lady he used the strenuous tones as if defying his enemies. With this one exception the play went off merrily, ending with everyone happy and the villain in the toils of the law.

Financially Overrated

Dr Gouge—I made a great mistake in diagnosing that fellow Poor's case as appendicitis. He wasn't able to stand the operation.
Dr Sawbones—Did he die?
Dr Gouge—No; I didn't proceed that far. He's up and around all right.
Dr Sawbones—Then why wasn't he able to stand the operation?
Dr Gouge—Financially, I mean.—Washington Post.

Half the ailments described as rheumatism are not rheumatism at all—merely pain from pressure on nerves. Osteopathy finds out and works many quick cures in such cases.
